2010 SEASON PREVIEW

It was well-documented during the 2009 season that the Missouri Tiger football team was one of the youngest in the entire nation, as 34 of MU's top 44 players on its depth chart were either freshmen or sophomores. So just what does the Tiger depth chart look like heading into the 2010 season? Mizzou is a team on paper which appears to be very experienced, as 16 starters return to the fold this fall, including eight on both sides of the ball. If the specialists are included, then a 17th starter is back, in PK Grant Ressel, who by the way, set an NCAA single-season kicking accuracy record last year.

OFFENSE

We'll start our look at the depth chart with the Tiger offense. Back are eight starters, including junior QB Blaine Gabbert and senior TB Derrick Washington as the skill player stars. Both will benefit from four starters returning on the offensive line, along with WR Wes Kemp and TE Andrew Jones. Junior WR Jerrell Jackson isn't technically a returning starter per se, but he has starting experience, as he took over the latter part of last year for an injured Jared Perry, and Tiger fans who remember Jackson's stellar performances late in the season know that he's primed for a breakout season in 2010. Rolandis Woodland is a very talented sophomore wideout who begins camp atop the depth chart at the X-receiver spot, and he'll be one to watch as the lead candidate to replace 2009 All-American Danario Alexander.

SQUAD BREAKDOWN

Total
Starters Returning (incl. specialists)	17
Starters Lost (incl. specialists)	7

QUARTERBACK

While Coach Pinkel says every year that every position is up for grabs, there's not a position that's less likely to see the returning starter unseated than quarterback, where junior Blaine Gabbert is back after an outstanding sophomore season which saw him help guide Mizzou to eight wins, while playing a good chunk of the season with a gimpy ankle.

Gabbert gritted his way through the injury and ended up 2nd in the Big 12 and 29th in the NCAA in passing efficiency (140.45 rating) in his first year as a starter. Gabbert won't have the luxury of sitting back and taking it easy, as he'll be challenged by returnees Jimmy Costello and Ashton Glaser, as well as true freshmen James Franklin and younger brother Tyler Gabbert, who both bypassed their final semester of high school to enroll at Mizzou early. Both talented rookies competed in spring, and Franklin performed well enough to put him in prime contention for the backup job…

OFFENSIVE LINE

Like most of the 2009 team overall, the Tiger offensive line was pretty youthful. But the by-product of that youth is that they're all back again in 2010, save for standout RG Kurtis Gregory, who matriculated through the program after starting for the previous three seasons.

Even with Gregory's departure, the offensive line figures to be a strong point of this team, with four starters back to lead the way, and some very promising and talented youngsters who can help add to the depth.

Starting LT Elvis Fisher missed the spring as he recovered from offseason surgery to repair a right shoulder injury he played with last season. He'll be 100 percent come fall camp, so Fisher, who started all 13 games in 2009, will be primed for his second year of protecting the backside of the Tiger quarterbacks.

Sophomore Jack Meiners, who played in 2009 in reserve as a true freshman, and redshirt freshman Mark Hill will battle for position on the depth behind Fisher. Meiners could see action on either side of the line, as well.

Austin Wuebbels started all 13 games at left guard in 2009, and he's primed to hold down the starting spot again. He's arguably the most physical of Mizzou's offensive linemen, someone with a nasty streak in a good way. Sophomore Daniel Jenkins enters fall camp as the primary backup to Wuebbels, and he's someone who has gained experience at several different spots on the line.

Mizzou is in great shape up the middle, as senior standout Tim Barnes is back for his third year as a starter under center. Barnes has started 27 consecutive games, and is on the preseason watch list for the Rimington and Outland trophies. As one of only four fifth-year scholarship seniors on the team this year (CB Kevin Rutland, LB Jeff Gettys and DL Bart Coslet are the others), Barnes will be relied upon heavily for leadership in 2010. Backing up Barnes is talented sophomore Travis Ruth. Ruth saw action in three games a year ago in reserve duty.

The only spot on the offensive line to lose a starter from 2009 (three-year starter Kurtis Gregory), right guard will be the most closely-watched position this fall in the trenches. Pushing for the starting spot will be talented redshirt freshman Justin Britt, who enters fall camp listed atop the depth here. Britt made his way onto the depth last season as a true freshman thanks to an impressive fall camp, and while Tiger coaches prepared him to play each week, in the end, they were able to preserve his redshirt, giving him four more years of playing time as a Tiger. Junior Jayson Palmgren is also primed to win the job, and Palmgren has plenty of experience. While he didn't make any starts in 2009, Palmgren played significantly in all 13 games a year ago, as he split considerable time at left guard along with Austin Wuebbels, so even though Mizzou is down a returning starter here, Tiger coaches feel like Palmgren can lessen the impact of Gregory's departure.

The right tackle spot is in solid hands with the return of Dan Hoch, a junior who started all 13 games here in 2009. Hoch was very solid in his first year as a starter, and he's expected to pair with left tackle Elvis Fisher to give Mizzou one of the top pair of bookend tackles in the Big 12 Conference in 2010.

TAILBACK

Gary Pinkel said prior to the start of spring ball that he expects the tailback position to be one of strength for the Tigers in 2010, and it's hard to argue otherwise. The trio of Derrick Washington, De'Vion Moore and Kendial Lawrence combined to rush for 1,342 yards in 2009, and they averaged 4.4 yards per rush. Mizzou experimented with some two-back offensive sets in 2009, and Pinkel has said in the off-season that they would be looking at incorporating more of that into the offensive game plan in 2010 to take advantage of the considerable skills these three running backs provide.

Washington was MU's top rusher a year ago, with 865 yards and 10 touchdowns, while he also caught 26 passes out of the backfield to add to the passing game. Moore battled a nagging knee injury all of last year (which he had cleaned up over the offseason), but managed 258 total yards and a touchdown (including the game-clincher against Iowa State), while Lawrence showed flashes of excitement while gaining 219 yards on 52 carries.

TIGHT END

The depth at tight end looks a little deeper this fall than it did in the spring, as returning starter Andrew Jones was on the sidelines recovering from offseason shoulder surgery to clean up an injury which kept him less than 100 percent last season. He played through the pain, however, and started eight of 13 games, catching eight passes for 43 yards in the process. Jones' production was not what everyone in Tiger camp expected a year ago, but that was mostly due to the explosion of Danario Alexander and all of the passes he caught in his record-setting 2009 season. Look for the tight end position to be more productive in the passing game in 2010, as second-year starting QB Blaine Gabbert becomes more comfortable with making his reads and progressions. Jones will be 100 percent come fall camp, but he'll be pushed by the athletic pass catcher Michael Egnew, who saw significant playing time last year and caught three passes for 25 yards.

Egnew is atop the depth heading into fall camp, and after Jones, he's backed up by junior Beau Brinkley (who is MU's long-snapping specialist), true freshman Eric Waters and redshirt freshman Alex Sanders. Waters is one of four signees from the 2010 recruiting class who took part in spring camp. Waters is a very athletic tight end who made some very quick impressions during spring camp, despite his inexperience, and he showed that he very well could be ready to play in 2010.

WIDE RECEIVER

The X-receiver spot is the one with the biggest hole to fill – the position where Danario Alexander obliterated the MU record books last year, with his All-American season which included 113 receptions for 1,781 yards and 14 touchdowns – all Mizzou single-season records. Sophomore Rolandis Woodland is the only player on the depth with game experience, as he logged action in eight games a year ago as a redshirt freshman. He caught five passes for 26 yards in his limited action. L'Damian Washington was able to take a redshirt last season in his first year in the Tiger program, but he did stand out quite frequently during practices as someone who showed a lot of big-play ability, so it wouldn't be a surprise to see him work his way into the rotation this fall.

At the H-receiver spot, junior Jerrell Jackson is technically not a returning starter, because he didn't start half of MU's games a year ago, but with five starts under his belt, plus the high impact play he provided down the stretch filling in for the injured Jared Perry, Jackson is looked at as a returning starter by Tiger coaches. And for good reason, as he was MU's 3rd-leading receiver in 2009, catching 37 passes for 458 yards and two touchdowns. Tiger fans will never forget his 37-yard jet sweep for a touchdown that he carried around right end in the epic win over rival Kansas last November either, and Coach Pinkel has said he envisions Jackson as a good fit for the versatile role in this offense that former super star Jeremy Maclin used to fill, in terms of catching passes and running with the ball.

Backing up Jackson is true sophomore T.J. Moe, who was a record-setting high school star who wound up at receiver last year as a true freshman. Moe was never 100 percent healthy last season, but impressed Tiger coaches enough to earn playing time in his first year in the program. Moe played in 10 games in 2009, and caught a pair of passes, and he is healthy now.

Redshirt freshman Kerwin Stricker is another good-looking athlete who has the potential to earn some playing time if he can put together a strong camp. A member of the 2009 recruiting class, Stricker wears Maclin's old jersey #9, and at times, he even resembles Maclin with his athleticism…

At the Z-receiver position, junior Wes Kemp became an impact player in 2009 in his first year as a starter, when he caught 23 passes for 418 yards and three touchdowns in 13 games (12 starts). Kemp became a legitimate deep threat, as his 18.2 yard average per catch led all Tiger receivers, even Danario Alexander, who averaged 15.8 yards per catch during his record-setting season.

Jackson

Backing up Kemp this spring is redshirt freshman Jaleel Clark, who moved up on the depth after a strong spring camp. Clark, at 6-foot-5, is a very good-looking receiver who has a nice combination of size, hands and body control, and is someone who stood out repeatedly during practices last season. Sophomore Gahn McGaffie, who at 5-foot-10, is a much different type of receiver than Kemp and Clark, but he has shown good speed and ball skills, enough to suggest that he'll have a good shot at seeing some playing time in 2010.

DEFENSE

Like their offensive counterparts, the Tiger defense in 2010 will take the field as a very experienced unit. Eight starters return to the fold this year from the 2009 team which excelled against the run, ranking 26th in the nation in stopping the run. Opponents averaged just 118.62 yards per game on the ground against the Tigers, with the yardage allowed in the category serving as the best by a Mizzou defense since 1983, when MU ranked 5th in the nation in rushing defense, at 97.70 yards per game.

That's not to say that second-year defensive coordinator Dave Steckel won't miss the trio of talented Tigers who are gone – LB Sean Weatherspoon, DT Jaron Baston and DE Brian Coulter. All three are talented enough to warrant a legitimate chance of playing at the next level on Sundays this fall — Weatherspoon was a first-round selection in April's NFL Draft.

But with the nation's top freshman sackmaster, in DE Aldon Smith, coming back, plus the return of a deep and talented group of linebackers and secondary players, the future looks very bright for Mizzou on this side of the ball.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Mizzou officially returns two starters from a year ago on a defensive line which helped the Tigers rank 26th in the nation against the run. Included in that group is 2009 Big 12 Conference Defensive Freshman/Newcomer of the Year, DE Aldon Smith. The other returning starter is NG Dominique Hamilton, who started in 12-of-13 games a year ago (at tackle), and proved to be a dependable presence in the trenches, with his 46 tackles.

Smith simply set the standard for defensive end play at Mizzou in his first year on the field, as he broke the MU single-season quarterback sacks record, with 11.5 on the year, to go with a team-best 19 tackles for loss. He also tied for the team lead with five pass break ups, and ranked fifth on the squad with his 64 tackles.

Also returning in 2010 on the opposite side of the line is junior DE Jacquies Smith. Smith made five starts opposite Aldon Smith in 2009, and he showed time and again that he was a playmaker as well, as he forced two fumbles, recovered a fumble, and returned an interception for a touchdown early in the year. Jacquies isn't considered a returning starter per se, but he's got enough experience that Tiger coaches feel he's ready to be the every-down guy this season, as he replaces departed starter Brian Coulter.

The other loss on the line comes from the graduation of DT Jaron Baston, who was a steady presence there for the previous three seasons. Junior DT Terrell Resonno gets the first shot at winning the job, as he begins spring ball as the favorite here. Resonno saw significant action in 2009, playing in 13 games, and making one start, so he's got a jump on the competition, which includes talented sophomores George White and Brendon Donaldson and redshirt freshman Marvin Foster.

Backing up Resonno at the other tackle spot heading into the spring is sophomore Jimmy Burge, senior Bart Coslet and junior Chris Earnhardt.

While Aldon Smith certainly has a frim grip on the starting spot, he will be pushed by some talented players coming up behind him, in sophomore Marcus Malbrough and redshirt freshman Michael Sam. Malbrough played in 12 games a year ago, getting some good playing time in the defensive rotation, as well as on special teams units, and he registered six tackles and recovered a fumble. Sam looks to get his feet wet at the collegiate level after redshirting in 2009. He's got a bright future ahead of him, and coaches are eager to see just what he can bring to the field this season.

At the other end spot, Jacquies Smith is backed up by sophomore

A. Smith

Brad Madison and redshirt freshman Brayden Burnett. Madison saw action in 12 games a year ago, mostly on special teams, but he began to work his way into the defensive rotation more and more as the year went on. Burnett is a high-energy end who looks to crack the field for the first time.

LINEBACKERS

It might sound a little odd to say, but heading into the fall, the linebacker position might just be the strongest of any on the Tiger defense for 2010. And that's saying alot, because gone is Sean Weatherspoon, who departs as one of the top linebackers to ever wear a Tiger uniform.

Despite losing Weatherspoon to the NFL, Mizzou has a stable of linebackers who are very experienced (two returning starters, plus a third with significant starting experience) and talented.

Atop the weakside spot heading into fall is senior Andrew Gachkar. He moves to the weakside (where Weatherspoon played previously), after establishing himself as a steady playmaker at the strongside in 2009, when he ranked second on the team with 80 tackles, while posting a team-high three fumble recoveries in 13 starts.

One of the prime battles to watch in camp will be at the middle linebacker spot, where senior Luke Lambert enters drills on top of the depth. The starter at the middle position to begin 2009, Lambert had an injury-plagued junior season that was limited to six games overall, before a shoulder injury knocked him out for the final six games of the year. He's got 16 career starts under his belt over the previous three years, and he begins fall ball in a fierce battle with junior Will Ebner for the starting nod.

Ebner started seven times in 2009, including the final six games of the season. Ebner is widely-recognized as the hardest hitter on the team, a reputation well-deserved after he ranked third overall with 78 tackles a year ago, including 9.5 tackles for loss. He'a also one of the toughest guys on the field, as he showed last year when he had arthroscopic knee surgery during the season, and returned to field just 12 days later, missing only one game in the process.

Gachkar

At the strongside position, coaches are very excited about the possibilities for sophomore Zaviar Gooden, who is atop the depth chart entering fall camp. Gooden saw the field for the first time in 2009 as a redshirt freshman, and showed in 13 games that he's got the ability to be a big-time playmaker for the Tigers. He's also arguably the best overall athlete on the team, as he's posted a 40-yard dash time in the 4.37-range, to go with a bench press of over 400 pounds, and a vertical jump of 40 inches.

Those three potential starters are reason enough to be excited about the linebacking position, but it is the potential quality of depth here that is the biggest reason for hope.

Other reserves looking to earn playing time in the middle include senior Jeff Gettys and redshirt freshman Adam Burton. Both are coming off of knee injuries which limited them a year ago. Gettys, who has been an invaluable member of various special teams units over the years, had his 2009 season ended just two games into the year. He begins fall camp listed third on the depth in the middle, and behind him is the talented Burton, who spent most of his first year in the program rehabbing a knee injury sustained in high school, but he's healthy now and ready to show what he can do.

At the weakside spot, lining up behind Gachkar is a pair of very talented linebackers who have the ability to make this a very deep position. At number two on the depth chart initially is sophomore Donovan Bonner, who earned a good amount of playing time as a true freshman in 2009. Bonner played in 12 games a year ago, and made nine tackles, mostly in reserve action, but he's got the physical skills to be an impact player for a long time to come.

Backing up Gooden on the depth chart at the strongside spot is redshirt freshman Andrew Wilson. Wilson redshirted in his first year with the program in 2009, and he'll look to crack the lineup starting by putting together a strong camp.

Behind him on the depth chart is junior Josh Tatum, who was junior college transfer to the program last year, but was unable to play due to a back injury suffered during the 2009 spring camp. Originally a signee with USC out of high school, Tatum is a physical specimen with the ability to be a high-level player. He's healthy now and ready to show just what he can do on the field for the Tigers in 2010.

CORNERBACKS

Mizzou has the luxury of returning both starters at cornerback from 2009, and they're a pair of proven veteran performers, in seniors Carl Gettis and Kevin Rutland.

Gettis will be in his fourth year as a starting cornerback for the Tigers. He's earned honorable mention All-Big 12 play in each of his prior three years, and he's looking to close out his Tiger career with his biggest year yet. Gettis has 37 career starts under his belt entering the 2010 season, and he's coming off a season which included 61 tackles and a team-high five passes broken up.

Rutland emerged as a high-level performer in 2009, as he won the starting job and kept it for all 13 games. Rutland, who is one of the fastest Tigers on the roster, contributed with 47 tackles in all, and led the team with two interceptions, while forcing one fumble and recovering one as well. His efforts won him honorable-mention All-Big 12 status for 2009.

Just because both starters are returning, doesn't mean that they won't be pushed for the starting job in 2010. Four lettermen return to the fold who gave the Tigers significant contributions in 2009, and they're all entering the season looking to challenge for playing time.

Backing up Rutland at one corner spot is senior Munir Prince and sophomore Robert Steeples. Prince made six tackles on the year, and as one of the fastest players on the team, he's got the chance to contribute in many ways. Steeples made some big contributions as a redshirt freshman in 2009, as he was third on the team with four pass break ups and added 15 tackles and a forced fumble to the cause.

At the other spot behind Gettis includes a pair of talented athletes, in sophomore Kip Edwards and junior Trey Hobson. Edwards earned his first letter in 2009, as he had 20 tackles, two pass break ups and an interception. Hobson saw action in 12 games a year ago, and made 17 tackles, as he saw the field increasingly throughout the season.

SAFETIES

Similar to the cornerback spot, Mizzou enjoys the return of both starting safeties from a year ago, in seniors Jasper Simmons and Jarrell Harrison.

Both were junior college transfers in 2009, and in spite of their newness to the program, became leaders in the secondary right away. Simmons broke into the starting lineup immediately and started 12 games in all, as he ended the year fourth on the team with 73 tackles, while forcing two fumbles, recovering one fumble and grabbing one interception.

Harrison made eight starts in all in 2009 and was among team leaders with his three pass break ups and 47 tackles, while adding a safety and an interception.

Backing up Simmons at the free safety position heading into the fall is talented redshirt freshman Matt White. He'll look to crack the lineup for the first time in 2010, and with his nice combination of speed and athleticism, he's got a great shot at doing just that. Another potential contributor at the strong safety spot come fall could be junior college transfer Kenronte Walker, who enrolled at Mizzou for the spring semester, and who took part in spring drills.

At the strong safety spot behind Harrison is junior Kenji Jackson, who has started nine games in his career, including five a year ago, when he registered 41 tackles for the secondary. Redshirt freshman Tavon Bolden is next on the depth there. Bolden is an outstanding overall athlete who coaches expect to work his way into the lineup this season, and he'll work this fall to make the kind of impressions he need to see the field during the upcoming season.

SPECIALISTS

Mizzou had one of the best stories in all of college football a year ago, in PK Grant Ressel. Ressel won the kicking job during the last week of fall camp, after entering two-a-days second on the depth chart. Having never tried a collegiate kick prior to the 2009 season, coaches didn't know what to expect from the untested native of Jackson, Mo.

All Ressel went on to do was break an NCAA single-season record for combined kick accuracy, as he nailed 65-of-66 kicks overall for the 2009 season, including an MU-record 26-of-27 field goals and a perfect 39-of-39 extra points.

Despite his relative unknown status to start the year, Ressel won 1st-Team All-American status for his play in 2009, and he's back to continue his contributions in 2010. He'll forever be etched into the hearts of Tiger fans, thanks to his game-winning kick with no time left on the clock to give Mizzou a 41-39 win over arch rival Kansas to close the 2009 regular season.

Ressel

Back for his second year as the primary holder for all placekicks is sure-handed wide receiver Forrest Shock, while junior tight end Beau Brinkley is back to handle the snapping duties for a third straight year. Shock did a superb job in 2009 as the holder, going virtually perfect time and again. Consider the fact that PK Grant Ressel set an NCAA accuracy record (making 26-of-27 FGs and 39-of-39 PATs) in his first year as a starter, and a lot of the credit needs to go to the battery mates of Shock and Brinkley. Shock even threw a little trickery into the mix in 2009, as he threw a touchdown pass to Jacquies Smith at Colorado on a fake field goal. Brinkley was named the team's co-special teams player of the year in 2009, along with Ressel.

Punter will be the biggest hole to fill from 2009, as the Tigers will have to replace Jake Harry IV, who closed his career holding the school career record for punting average, at 42.1 yards per kick. Harry mastered the art of the roll-out soccer-style punt, and his prowess at that style of kick was a major reason why the Tigers ended the season ranked fourth in the NCAA in team net punting, with a mark of 40.48 yards per kick.

Looking to win the job at replacing Harry is senior Matt Grabner. Grabner joined the team in 2009, after spending time previously at Ole Miss and then at Mizzou. He has a strong leg and did see the field for one punt in 2009, as he got some reserve time for one punt against Illinois. Backing up Grabner on the depth chart heading into spring camp is sophomore Trey Barrow, who can also potentially contribute as a placekicker.

PRODUCTION RETURNING IN 2010

With 17 starters returning in 2010, plus many others with previous starting experience, the Tigers will be one of the most experienced teams to take the field in the Big 12 Conference this fall. Here's a look at the production returning from 2009 for the upcoming season:

2010 OUTLOOK

One of the top centers in the nation who returns for his third and final year as a starter, and anchor of an offensive line which is being looked to as a strong point of the Tiger offensive attack … Begins his senior season on the pre-season watch lists for the prestigious Rimington and Outland trophies, and should also be a leading candidate for All-Big 12 honors … Is only the third different player to start at center for Gary Pinkel, as he follows former greats A.J. Ricker (36 starts in 36 games under Pinkel from 2001-03) and Adam Spieker (MU-record 50 starts in 50 games from 2004-07) … Enters the 2010 season with a string of 27 consecutive starts under his belt … Is one of only four scholarship fifth-year seniors on the roster, with CB Kevin Rutland, LB Jeff Gettys and DL Bart Coslet the others.

2009 SEASON

Helped lead the Tigers to a bowl game with his outstanding play anchoring the line of scrimmage ... Was a steadying force for first-year starting QB Blaine Gabbert, and made all 13 starts for the Tigers at center on the season ... Part of an offensive line that gave up just 20 sacks in 13 games on the season (467 passing attempts in all) ... Named to the watch list for the Rimington Award, which is given to the nation's top offensive lineman ... Part of an MU offense that averaged just under 30 points per game on the season.

- 2008 Team Walk-On Player of the Year

2010 OUTLOOK
One of the unsung heroes of the Tiger team over the past two years, thanks to his near-perfect work as a long snapper for the special teams units … Is also an underrated athlete who can be a contributor in the passing game as a tight end, where he begins camp listed No. 3 on the depth chart … Caught 3 passes for 26 yards in the Black & Gold Game to close out spring camp … A diamond in the rough who came to Mizzou as a walk-on for the 2008 season, and he quickly won the long snapping job and hasn't relinquished it since … Coach Pinkel has been quoted many times in the media about how he is able to sleep better at night knowing that the crucial long-snapping duties are in good hands with Brinkley running the show … Was awarded a scholarship after the 2008 season.

2009 SEASON
Was virtually flawless in his long snapping duties throughout the course of the season, as his accuracy in the clutch helped first-year kicker Grant Ressel set an NCAA single-season kicking accuracy record for combined kicks (Ressel made 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 extra points for a combined accuracy mark of 65-of-66) … Made a perfect pass from center to holder Forrest Shock to help Ressel boot the game-winner (27 yards out) with no time on the clock to down rival Kansas in a 41-39 thriller in Arrowhead Stadium … Also used his athleticism to get downfield on punt coverage units and recorded three tackles, with one each coming in games against Illinois, Colorado and Iowa State … His stellar snaps on the punt team also helped MU rank 4th in the NCAA in team net punting (40.48 avg.) … For all of his efforts on the special teams units, he was named the team's Special Teams Player of the Year … Also began seeing the field late in the year on occasion in some offensive sets, and while he didn't record any receptions, he earned the trust of Tiger coaches that he could be effective enough to be counted on should the opportunities present themselves.

2010 OUTLOOK

A ferocious hitter who has designs on being a leader for the Tiger defense in 2010 after earning honorable mention All-Big 12 status by the Associated Press for a breakout season in 2009 … Is a very quiet and mild-mannered kid off the field who truly enjoys punishing ball carriers when he's got his helmet and pads on … Begins fall drills in the No. 2 spot on the depth chart at the middle linebacker position, where he started the final 6 games of the 2009 season, and 7 in all … Closed spring ball by grabbing an interception in the Black & Gold Spring Game.

2009 SEASON

Emerged as a high-level Big 12 linebacker, as he came on strong toward the end of the year and was named by the Associated Press to the Honorable Mention All-Big 12 team, thanks to his season which included 78 tackles (3rd-best on the Tiger squad), 9.5 tackles for loss (49 yards) and 3.5 QB sacks (33 yards) … Furthered his reputation as one of the tougher players on the team when he returned to take the field against Texas on Oct. 24, less than two weeks from having arthroscopic surgery done on a knee that he injured in an Oct. 8 game against Nebraska … After sitting out the Oct. 17 game at Oklahoma State, he came back against the Longhorns to record 7 tackles and a tackle for loss in the game … Tied for second on the team with seven tackles in the season opener against Illinois ... Had one tackle for loss against the Illini ... Made four stops against Bowling Green, three of which were solo tackles ... Set a career best with a game-high nine tackles against Furman ... Matched that with nine stops against Nevada in his first career start, eight of which were solos ... Had two TFL's and one sack in the win over Nevada ... Made two tackles, including one TFL against Nebraska ... Left the game against the Cornhuskers with a knee injury and did not play against Oklahoma State ... Entered the starting lineup for the duration of the season at Colorado, when he made four tackles, including one sack which went for a loss of 13 yards ... Also forced a fumble on that sack, which was recovered by MU inside the CU 5-yardline ... Tied for second on the team with eight tackles against Baylor, including one TFL ... Made six tackles against Kansas State on Nov. 14 ... Also recovered a fumble against KSU ... Made three tackles, including his third sack of the year against Iowa State ... Was second on the squad with 10 tackles against Kansas to close the regular season, and ended the year with a 9-tackle outing in the Texas Bowl playing in his hometown of Houston … Had a labrum tear repaired in his right shoulder during the off-season, which was thought might limit him somewhat during spring ball, but he played through it very well and was named the team's Most Improved Linebacker Award winner for his efforts during spring camp … Had 3 tackles during the Black & Gold Spring Game.

• 2009 1st-Team Academic All-Big 12

2010 OUTLOOK
One of the most exciting all-around athletes on the team who joined Mizzou as part of its highly-touted 2008 signing class … Made a nice splash last year as a redshirt freshman reserve, but now steps into a potential starting role, as he begins fall camp listed as the No. 1 strongside linebacker, where he can show off his outstanding athleticism and speed (was tested in the winter and ran a 40-yard dash that was timed in the 4.3s) … Prior to the 2009 season, was awarded his current jersey number of #25, which is an honorary number that he will wear for the remainder of his Tiger career to pay tribute to Aaron O'Neal, a Tiger linebacker who wore that number at MU before passing away following voluntary summer conditioning workouts in July of 2005 … Once he's done wearing the number, he'll pass it along to another linebacker to carry on the tradition.

2009 SEASON
Saw his first action as a Tiger after moving down to the linebackers over the summer, after spending the spring at his traditional safety position … Saw action in all 13 games and really started to hit his stride toward the latter part of the season, as he had 3 or more tackles in six of MU's last seven ballgames … Finished with 30 tackles on the year, including 3 tackles for loss … Also did a great job in the classroom, as he earned 1st-Team Academic All-Big 12 honors for his efforts … Made three tackles against Furman, including one TFL ... Had a then-career-best four tackles against Nevada and recorded two stops in the Oklahoma State game ... Tied his career high with four tackles against Texas ... Made three tackles (all solos) against Colorado on Oct. 31 ... Also recovered a fumble in the win over CU ... Had one pass-break-up against Baylor on Nov. 7 ... Made five tackles against Kansas State to set a new career best ... Also forced a key fumble on the one-yard line that went out of the endzone resulting in a touchback for Missouri ... Had three tackles in both the Iowa State and Kansas games … Had 3 tackles in the spring game from the safety position … Changed his jersey to #21 prior to spring ball, after wearing #40 during his first year in the program.

2010 OUTLOOK

A steady, smooth, and lightning quick receiver who will be expected to take his game up a notch, given the departure of former star receivers Danario Alexander and Jared Perry … Has shown the ability in the past that he's ready to be a big-play receiver, and he takes that extensive experience into the 2010 season, where he begins camp listed at No. 1 on the depth chart at the H-receiver position … Could also factor into the return game as well when fall rolls around … Caught the eye of one national outlet over the summer, as he was named one of six national break out stars to watch for in 2010 by Yahoo! Sports.

2009 SEASON

Emerged late in the season as an explosive play maker who burned opposing defenses in the air and on the ground … Was a starter 5 times on the season, and stepped up big-time when senior wideout Jared Perry missed the final two games of the regular season with a knee injury … In Perry's absence, he caught a career-best 142 yards of passes (on 8 receptions) in a key win against Iowa State, including a career-long 70-yard TD catch-and-run that got Mizzou going in the second half … He followed by catching 5 passes for 54 yards in the epic win against rival Kansas, but made his biggest contribution when he took a 3rd-quarter jet sweep around right end and turned on the burners to go untouched for a 37-yard TD run … His receptions (37) and yardage (458) were both good for the third-highest totals on the team for the season … Also did a great job in the classroom, and he was recognized as a 2nd-Team Academic All-Big 12 performer for his efforts there … Opened the 2009 season by making two receptions against Illinois ... Caught his first career TD, a four-yard grab in the third quarter against the Illini ... Made one reception against Bowling Green for 12 yards ... Had four catches for 64 yards against Furman ... Made one catch for 15 yard against Nevada and caught two passes for 11 yards against Nebraska ... Had two grabs for 25 yards, including a 21-yard reception against Oklahoma State ... Caught two passes against Texas ... Made just one reception for five yards against Colorado on Oct. 31, but the grab was a one-handed, highlight-reel catch ... Tallied three catches for 36 yards against Baylor ... Had a season-high six catches and a then-career-best 78 yards against Kansas State ... Also carried the ball three times for 24 yards for 102 yards of total offense against KSU … Spent the vast majority of spring camp running with the top-string offense, as Danario Alexander sat out from contact, which gave him valuable experience … Was one of the offense's top performers in the spring game, as he caught 2 passes for 26 yards, and was the leading rusher on the day as well, going for 39 yards on 2 attempts.

- 2009 2nd-Team Academic All-Big 12
- 2009 Team Spring Most Improved Wide Receiver

2010 OUTLOOK

Proven playmaker who will be looked to for veteran leadership from the wide receiver position … Enters fall camp listed atop the depth chart at the Z-receiver position, where he started all 13 games a year ago and was an impact player, as he led the team in yards per reception (18.2 avg.) … Has impressive size and athletic ability to go along with his stellar play-making skills at the wideout spot … Is also an outstanding student, as he was named a 2nd-Team Academic All-Big 12 performer in the classroom in 2009.

2009 SEASON

Won a starting job with a strong fall camp, and quickly earned the trust of fellow first-year starting QB Blaine Gabbert, as they developed a nice chemistry early in the season … Ended the year fifth on the team in receptions (23) and fourth in receiving yards (418), while his per-catch average of 18.2 yards was the best on the team … Started for the first time in his career in the season-opener against Illinois and caught four passes for 77 yards, including his first career touchdown in his hometown of St. Louis, Mo. ... The TD came on a 49-yard pass play and was the Tigers' first touchdown of the season ... Caught two passes for 38 yards in the win over Bowling Green ... Scored his second TD of the year on a 33-yard reception in the fourth quarter against BGSU which proved to be the game-winner as the Tigers came back from a double-digit deficit to post the win ... Closed the season by making 3 catches for 83 yards in the Texas Bowl against Navy, including a 56-yard catch-and-run that he nearly took the distance … Also helped with the kickoff return game late in the year, when he returned 6 kickoffs in the final five games, and averaged 22.7 yards per return, which was best on the team for the season … Made one catch against Furman ... Had three receptions for a career-best 99 yards against Nevada ... Had one grab in the Big 12 opener against Nebraska ... Recorded two receptions for 44 yards against Oklahoma State on Oct. 17 ... Had a 40-yard catch in the game at OSU ... Made one catch for 12 yards in the win at Colorado ... Had three receptions for 43 yards against Baylor ... Caught his third TD pass of the year with a nice grab on the sideline just before the end of the first half against BU ... Had one reception for 11 yards against Kansas State ... Caught one pass against Iowa State … Was impressive enough during the spring to earn the team's Most Improved Wide Receiver award … Caught 3 passes for 32 yards in the spring game to close camp.

2010 OUTLOOK

(First name is pronounced KEN-dull) … An explosive ball carrier who is a legitimate threat to break a big play every time he touches the ball … Showed his quickness and burst to the hole enough last year to whet the appetite of Tiger fans excited to see him become an even bigger part of the offense in his second year in the program … Opens camp listed at No. 3 on the depth chart at the tailback position, but he's expected to see significant time as the Tigers boast three high-level tailbacks who will help carry the load … Is also an excellent pass catcher out of the backfield and is someone who can factor into the passing game in a number of ways, whether coming out of the backfield, or lining up wide … Changed his jersey to #4 prior to spring camp, a switch from the #30 jersey he wore last year in his first season in the Tiger program.

2009 SEASON

Showed Tiger fans that they've got an explosive presence in the backfield for years to come, as he ran for 219 yards throughout the course of the year in reserve action … Also doubled as a kickoff return man, and averaged 18.2 yards on 12 tries, with a long of 32 yards (against Baylor) … Also caught 3 passes on the year for 49 yards, including a beautiful leaping 33-yard reception on a 3rd-and-long situation at Nevada that extended a Tiger drive which eventually ended in a touchdown … Had four carries against Illinois in his first collegiate action ... Ran the ball seven times for 49 yards against Bowling Green on Sept. 12 ... Had career-highs in carries (10) and yards (77) in the win over Furman ... Carried the ball six times for eight yards against Nevada ... Was the Tigers' leading rusher against Texas, running for 37 yards on 7 carries, one of which was a nice 22-yard gain up the middle that served as his long gain for the season ... Carried the ball seven times against Colorado on Oct. 31 ... Had two carries for 15 yards against Baylor ... Had seven rushes for 28 yards in the win over Iowa State.

2010 OUTLOOK

Athletic end who should continue to develop into an impact player, as he's in his second full year at the position, after switching from offensive line, where he started with the program … Has a big motor and is a high-effort player with a natural athleticism that translates well to the end position … Factors into the depth in a big way in 2010, and he'll begin camp listed at No. 2 on the depth at one end position, behind returning starter Jacquies Smith … Had an impressive spring camp that he closed by making a stand-out play in the Black & Gold Spring Game, when he sacked a Tiger quarterback, and picked the ball up for a 14-yard fumble return touchdown.

2009 SEASON

Big man who moved over to defense, after spending his first year in the program working on the offensive line … Saw action in 12-of-13 games on the season, and contributed on special teams units, as well as defense more and more as the year went on … Had his first collegiate tackle against Furman, and later in the year as he started seeing more snaps on defense, he broke up a pair of passes, one each in Tiger wins over Kansas State and Kansas … His break up in Manhattan came deep in Wildcat territory, and the ball bounced high in the air near the goalline, and he nearly had a shot at an easy interception and six points … Was a regular on the Tiger kickoff return unit as well throughout the season … Made the move to defense because Tiger coaches felt his size was more suited to becoming a defensive lineman, and after the spring camp he turned in, they made the right call, as he was very impressive … Began the spring at the bottom of the depth chart, but quickly moved his way up the ladder, and he began fall drills listed at No. 2 behind veteran Brian Coulter.

2010 OUTLOOK
A versatile athlete who could be a contributor on either side of the ball, but Tiger offensive coaches won out and landed him for the wideout position … After spending his first year less than 100 percent due to a high school injury, he's now healthy and ready to show his explosive ball skills and natural instincts, and he's expected to be an impact player at both the H-receiver spot and potentially in the kick return game, as well … Begins fall drills listed at No. 2 on the depth at the H-receiver position, after an impressive spring camp where he showed what he could do when healthy … Closed spring ball by making a game-high 12 receptions for 85 yards in the Black & Gold Game.

2009 SEASON
Came to Mizzou with the potential to fit well on either side of the ball, but chose to play receiver, where he appeared in 10 games as a true freshman … Caught 2 passes for 8 yards on the year, with both grabs coming in game #2 against Furman … Also saw some action on various special teams units … Spent the year less than 100 percent physically, as he worked to rehab a broken foot, an injury he sustained unknowingly during his senior season, but which he continued to play on until it was diagnosed by MU's medical team … Had off-season surgery to repair the injury, and while he was cleared to play for the 2009 season, he wasn't quite 100 percent … Played through the pain though and gained a lot of admiration for being a tough-minded teammate willing to do whatever it takes to get the job done.

HIGH SCHOOL
Outstanding athlete who was a standout quarterback at Fort Zumwalt West High School, putting up eye-popping numbers as a true run-pass threat … Ranked by Rivals.com as the No. 32 athlete in the nation, and is listed as the No. 5 overall prospect (any position) in the state of Missouri as well … Scout.com lists him as the nation's No. 50 prospect at the safety position … Named the Missouri ESPN Rise Gatorade football player of the year as a senior in 2008, when he amassed 2,557 passing yards (31 touchdowns) and added a whopping 2,029 rushing yards (30 touchdowns) … ESPN.com said he is an athlete who runs very well and who has very good acceleration and versatility … Other honors he took home in 2008 included Old Spice Player of the Year, St. Louis Metro Offensive Player of the Year, 1st-Team All-State as both a quarterback and an all-purpose back, as well as being the Gateway Athletic Conference Player of the Year … Had 1 interception and 2 fumble recoveries playing defense in 2008 … As a junior, was named 1st-Team All-State again as both a quarterback and all-purpose back, as he had 2,326 passing yards with 17 touchdowns, and added 1,497 rushing yards and 25 touchdowns … Was a 1st-Team All-District wide receiver as a sophomore, catching 50 passes for 380 yards and 2 touchdowns, while also throwing for 501 yards and 5 touchdowns and rushing for 348 yards and 3 more scores … An outstanding overall athlete who also lettered three years in basketball for his school … High school coach – Paul Day.

2010 OUTLOOK
(First name is pronounced DEV-in) … A compact ball carrier who has deceiving strength and speed, and he's likely to be even quicker in 2010 after having an off-season procedure done to clean up some nagging pain in his knee which hampered him a year ago … Enters fall practice at No. 2 on the depth chart behind incumbent starter Derrick Washington, but should play a big factor in the Tiger rushing attack in 2010 … A St. Louis, Mo. native who sold concessions at Busch Stadium for St. Louis Cardinals baseball games during his high school days … Worked during the Cardinals' World Series season of 2006, which he said was very lucrative in terms of tips he received from the happy Cards fans during their playoff and World Series run … Was rewarded for his hard work in the classroom last season when he was named 2nd-Team Academic All-Big 12.

2009 SEASON

Turned in a solid sophomore campaign as he ran for a career-high 258 yards on 63 carries giving Mizzou a nice 1-2 running punch alongside Derrick Washington … Battled a nagging knee injury which he played with that kept him less than 100 percent all season, but he fought through the discomfort to see action in 11 games, including getting his first collegiate start against Baylor … Carried the ball eight times for 21 yards against Illinois in the season opener ... Injury forced him to miss the Bowling Green and Furman games ... Had one carry for three yards against Nevada, still dealing with an injured ankle ... Ran for 42 yards on seven carries against Oklahoma State ... Had six carries for 27 yards against Texas on Oct. 24 ... Ran for 58 yards on eight carries (7.2 ypc) at Colorado ... Gained 16 yards on four carries against Baylor ... Ran the ball three times for five yards in the win over Kansas State on Nov. 14 ... Had a season-high 15 carries for 51 yards and a touchdown against Iowa State ... The TD was his first of the year and second of his career, and it came with just 4:43 left in the game, to clinch MU's important 34-24 victory over the pesky Cyclones … Closed the season by carrying 5 times in the 2009 Texas Bowl against Navy for 24 yards … Had a very impressive spring camp as he showed a great burst, as well as an ability to be a dependable option in the passing game out of the backfield … Was impressive enough to win the team's Most Improved Offensive Back Award (sharing it with QB Blaine Gabbert).

- 2009 Team Special Teams Player of the Year Award

2010 OUTLOOK

One of the top kickers in the nation who should contend for All-American honors and other national awards after an amazing sophomore season which saw him win the kicking job the week of the season opener, and then proceed to break an NCAA single-season accuracy record … Emerged from unknown status to most Tiger fans prior to the 2009 season to become a 1st-Team All-American, and he'll forever be enshrined in the hearts of Mizzou fans for generations to come, thanks to his game-winning field goal with no time left against arch rival Kansas … Naturally, enters fall ball atop the depth chart for placekicking duties, and he'll also be looked at as a potential kickoff man, too … Came to Mizzou as a walk-on, but no longer has to worry about that distinction, as he was awarded with a scholarship following the 2009 season … Thanks to his accuracy, the 2010 season will begin with Mizzou having made 237 consecutive extra points, dating back to its last miss in 2005 … Mizzou stands just 25 makes away from the NCAA record of 262 consecutive extra points made, by Syracuse, from 1978 to 1989.

2009 SEASON

Was one of the truly amazing stories in all of college football during the 2009 season, as he rose from an unheralded 2nd-string kicker before the season and went on to win 1st-Team All-American honors for a year that was record-breaking … Ended the year making a combined 65-of-66 total kicks (98.5%), including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 extra points, and that percentage broke an NCAA single-season record for best combined kick accuracy … Also led the NCAA in FG percentage among those with 13 or more attempts (96.3%) and finished third nationally with 2.00 field goals made per game … Was the hero of MU's 41-39 win over rival Kansas, as he connected on all four field goal attempts (43, 28, 37,

27) including the game-winning 27-yarder as time expired … Began fall camp as the second-string kicker, but was steady and accurate enough to prompt coaches to keep him in mind for the starting duties, and sure enough, he was named the starter the week of MU's season-opener against rival Illinois … He rewarded the coaches for their faith in him by connecting on all three of his field goal attempts in the game (32, 44 and 41 yards) ... Was 2-for-2 on FG attempts in the home opener against Bowling Green, hitting from 38 yards and a career-high 46 yarder ... Made his only FG attempt against Furman, from 44 yards out ... Made four field goals against Nevada (22, 31, 27, 26 yards) ... Was 1-for-2 in field goal attempts against Nebraska, connecting from 22 yards ... His only miss of the entire 2009 season came against Nebraska, when he slightly pulled a 43-yarder in terrible downpour conditions, as the timing of the kick was thrown off with a snap that came in high and a bit wide ... Made his only attempt (21 yards) against Oklahoma State ... Was 2-for-2 at Colorado (29 and 33 yards) ... Made all three of his kicks against Baylor, including two 46-yard kicks, which matched his career best ... Put the Tigers on the board against Kansas State with a 23-yard field goal, his only attempt of the day ... Made field goals of 20 and 38 yards against Iowa State on Nov. 21 … Also tried his hand at kickoffs toward the latter part of the year, as he booted 14 kickoffs in the final six games, getting one touchback in the process.

- 2009 Team Walk-On Player of the Year Award

2010 OUTLOOK

Talented veteran receiver who has shown good toughness and pass-catching skills in his time in the program… Is a receiver by trade, but actually doesn't appear on the depth chart because he's focused his time on serving the vital role of holder for all Tiger placekicks, a job which he performed for the first time in 2009, and did so flawlessly … Has served in past season on kick coverage units as well, but likely won't be in that role this year to keep him healthy for place holding … Is a likely candidate to serve on the hands team in onside kick situations … Is an outstanding student who earned 2nd-Team Academic All-Big 12 honors in 2009 for his efforts in the classroom … Is playing the 2010 season as a graduate student, as he earned his undergraduate degree from Mizzou in May, in banking and finance.

2009 SEASON

Began the year in the depth at the H-receiver position, but eventually was designated to focus his efforts on serving as MU's primary place holder for kicks … Performed flawlessly, and was a major reason why first-year kicker Grant Ressel was able to set an NCAA single-season accuracy record for combined kicks, as he made 65-of-66 kicks overall on the season … Was named the team's Walk-On Player of the Year for his sterling efforts on the season … Did a brilliant job of taking the snaps and getting the ball down on time … Even got in on the scoring action himself at Colorado, when he shoveled a forward pass to Jacquies Smith on a fake field goal, and Smith went around left end for a 24-yard touchdown in the 2nd quarter … That was his first career pass thrown, and the TD gives him a passer rating of 631.60 (although he is just slightly below the minimum number of pass attempts to qualify for any records!) … Caught 3 passes for 28 yards in the Black & Gold Game to close spring camp.

2010 OUTLOOK

An instant-impact junior college safety who didn't take long to crack the starting lineup in 2009, his first year with the Tigers … Is expected to hold down the lead duties at free safety once again in 2010, and he begins fall drills listed atop the depth chart at that position … Provides the Tiger secondary with outstanding athleticism and a knack for delivering a crushing blow when the opportunity comes.

2009 SEASON

Was a huge contributor to the Tiger defense, despite not joining the team until summer, but ended up starting the final 12 games of the season, and wound up ranking 4th on the team with 73 tackles from his safety position … Had a hand in 4 turnovers on the season, as he forced a pair of fumbles, recovered another fumble, and intercepted one pass to boot … Also served double duty as MU's primary kickoff return man, with 36 returns for an average of 22.6 yards per kick … Closed the year with a flourish as he made 11 tackles in the regular-season finale against Kansas, and then followed with 6 stops and a forced fumble against Navy in the 2009 Texas Bowl … The fumble was a key play in the first half where he stripped a Navy ball carrier inside the Tiger 5-yardline, with the ball rolling forward into the endzone, where it was recovered by MU to thwart a Midshipmen scoring opportunity … Made his collegiate debut by recording six tackles in the season opener against Illinois, five of which were solo stops ... Was second on the team with eight tackles (six solos) against Bowling Green on Sept. 12 as he moved into the starting lineup for good ... Made five tackles against Furman, including one TFL ... Recovered a fumble against Furman, returning it eight yards ... Had five tackles against Nevada ... Had four stops against Nebraska on Oct. 8 and recorded one TFL ... Made five tackles (all solos) against Oklahoma State on Oct. 17 ... Averaged 25 yards on five kickoff returns against the Cowboys, and also took a reverse on a punt return in the 4th quarter and scampered 60 yards down the right sideline before being stopped inside the OSU 10-yardline ... Tallied six tackles against Texas, including one TFL ... Made two tackles against Colorado and had three stops against Baylor ... Had two kick returns for 59 yards (29.4 ypr) ... Had seven tackles against Kansas State on Nov. 14 ... Returned six kicks for 163 yards (27.2 ypr) ... Recorded five tackles in the win over Iowa State and intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter to seal the victory.

2010 OUTLOOK

Had big hopes coming into his redshirt freshman season, and managed to surpass the expectations as he rolled to a freshman All-American season and broke the MU single-season quarterback sacks record in the process (with 11.5) in 2009 … Begins the 2010 season on the short list for several national awards and honors watch lists … Is a relentless pass rusher who uses his superb athleticism and long arms and reach to outman opposing linemen … Is continuing to work on his technique to become even more disruptive to opponents … Begins camp holding down the top spot at one defensive end position.

Did not disappoint whatsoever in his first year seeing the field, as he won numerous prestigious awards, including Big 12 Defensive Newcomer and Freshman of the Year (in unanimous fashion), as well as being named a 1st-Team Freshman All-American, thanks to his monster season which included 64 tackles, 19 tackles for loss and an MU single-season record 11.5 quarterback sacks … Finished the year ranked 9th in the NCAA in sacks (0.88 per game) and 14th in tackles for loss (1.46 per game) … Showed he had the ability to make huge plays at anytime, as evidenced by his play against rival Kansas, when he came up with two of the bigger plays in the ballgame in the 4th quarter after being shutout in the first 3 quarters of play … Had only 2 tackles versus Kansas, but both came in crunch time, with the first coming on a sack on 3rd down deep in MU territory to force a field goal (it was his 11th sack of the season which tied him for the school record along with Justin Smith in 2000) … The second huge play came with MU trailing 39-36 late in the game, when he teamed with Brian Coulter to record a safety of KU's Todd Reesing, which pulled MU to within one point with 2:45 left, and led to Mizzou's subsequent drive, which ended in a game-winning field goal … Playing in his first game at Missouri, made six tackles (three solos, three assists) against Illinois ... Three of his six tackles went for a loss, including one sack of UI's Juice Williams for a loss of four yards. ... Recorded five tackles against Bowling Green, which included a key sack (for a loss of 18 yards) late in the fourth quarter ... Made two tackles against Furman and added two pass break-ups ... Had a then-career-best seven tackles against Nevada, five of which were solo stops ... Had one sack against the Wolf Pack ... Made four tackles in the conference opener against Nebraska and had three stops at Oklahoma State ... Had a big night against Texas on Oct. 24, tying for the team lead with career-high 11 tackles (all 11 were solo stops) ... Had four TFLs against UT, including two sacks ... Made five tackles against Colorado, four of which were TFLs ... Had three sacks in the win over the Buffs, for a loss of 27 yards ... Also recovered a fumble in the win at CU ... Made five tackles (all solo), including two TFLs (for a loss of 13 yards) against Baylor ... Had one sack, his ninth of the year, against the Bears ... Made six tackles against Kansas State, including two TFLs (for a loss of 12 yards) ... Recorded his 10th sack of the season in the win over KSU ... Made three tackles against Iowa State on Nov. 21 ... Ended the season with a 5-tackle performance against Navy, which included a half-sack to give him sole possession of the MU single-season sacks record, at 11.5 … Closed down the spring by making 4 tackles in the annual spring scrimmage that was won by the Tiger defense.

in February of 2008, prior to the end of his junior year in school … Rated by Rivals.com as the No. 10 overall player (any position) in the state of Missouri, and as the nation's No. 89 wide receiver prospect … Scout.com listed him as the No. 75 wide receiver prospect in the country, as well … ESPN.com called him physically ready to make the jump to the collegiate level, and that he is a strong bodied receiver who shows good concentration in traffic and can absorb the big hit over the middle while still tracking the ball … Was a 1st-Team All-District and All-Conference performer as a wide receiver each of his junior and senior seasons at Washington High School … As a senior, had 27 receptions for 670 yards and 10 touchdowns … Junior season stats included 25 catches for 520 yards and 10 touchdowns … Was a standout track and field athlete as well, as he won the state title in the 300-meter hurdles in 2008 and was 4th in the 110-meter hurdles in the same meet … Took 2nd in the 300-meter hurdles and 4th in the 110-meter hurdles as a sophomore, after placing 8th in the state long jump finals as a freshman … High school coach – Jeff Duncan.

PERSONAL

Parents – George & Lisa Stricker … Interested in studying Computer Science at Mizzou … Lists hobbies as sports, hanging out with friends and watching movies … Chose Mizzou over Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas and Kansas State, among others.

2010 OUTLOOK

One of the top junior college recruits in all of the nation who joined MU for the spring of 2009, only to see a debilitating back injury in spring ball take him out for the entire 2009 season … Was persistent in his efforts to rehab his back, and hopes that it pays off now that he is cleared to participate in 2010 … He'll have a shot at earning playing time with a strong camp, and he begins the fall listed at No. 3 on the depth at strongside linebacker … Is being listed as a junior for the 2010 season, and the plan is to apply for a medical hardship waiver following the season that would grant him a sixth-year of eligibility … Came to Mizzou from City College of San Francisco along with fellow defensive teammate Jarrell Harrison … Helped turn Harrison onto Mizzou during his recruiting process … ESPN.com said he is a very physical linebacker with a nose for the ball, and that he moves well in traffic and can make plays from sideline to sideline, while being comfortable dropping into zone coverage and making plays in space.

2009 SEASON

Highly-touted junior college linebacker who came to Mizzou in time for the 2009 spring season … Was ranked as the No. 12 overall junior college player in the nation (any position) by Rivals.com, playing the linebacker spot … Listed as a four-star linebacker prospect by Rivals.com and by Scout.com … Established himself early in spring camp as a hard hitter, but had his spring cut short toward the end of camp with a back injury that kept him out of the Black & Gold Spring Game … Was hoped to be healthy by the fall, but could not go, making the year a trying one for him, but he worked hard in rehab to get himself ready to play for the next season.

JUNIOR COLLEGE

Initially attended USC out of high school, but transferred to CCSF after taking a redshirt at USC during the 2006 season while he was rehabbing a knee injury suffered in high school … Was tabbed a 1st-Team JUCO All-American for his play at CCSF in 2008, when he amassed 120 tackles and added 15 tackles for loss, 7 quarterback sacks, 7 pass break ups and one interception that he returned 93 yards for a touchdown … Junior college coach – George Rush.

2010 OUTLOOK

One of the top backs in the Big 12 Conference, and likely one of the most versatile in the nation who can impact a game in both the running and passing attack … Is the best combination of running and pass-catching threat out of the backfield that Mizzou has had in a long while, and his presence in the lineup gives MU another legitimate receiving threat who can line up wide if needed … Has a great combination of size, speed and vision that fits well with MU's cutback philosophy with its line splits and running lanes … Is also a very dependable and sure-handed protector of the ball, as he's fumbled only 6 times in his 468 career touches (403 rushes, 65 receptions), with MU losing only 3 of those fumbles … With 2,085 rushing yards to his credit, he is only the 12th Tiger to amass 2,000 yards rushing, and he enters the 2010 season ranking 10th all-time in rushing yards.

2009 SEASON

Led Mizzou in rushing for the second straight year as he carried a career-high 190 times and netted 865 yards and 10 touchdowns, while catching 26 passes for 156 yards … Also did a nice job of providing protection when called upon for QB Blaine Gabbert in the pocket … Was his best in Mizzou's big rivalry game with Kansas, when he keyed MU's 41-39 victory by running for 111 yards on 15 carries (7.4 ypc) in the game ... Scored twice in the win over KU on runs of 1 yard in the 2nd quarter and 14 yards in the 3rd quarter ... Later, with the game on the line and MU trailing 39-38 and facing a crucial 3rd-and-2 from the KU 32-yardline, he rambled 27-yards down to the KU 5-yardline in the final minute to set up the game-winning field goal … Was at his best in crunch time all season long as each of his four longest runs of the year came in the fourth quarter of play (42 yards at Nevada, 32 vs. Illinois, 27 vs. Kansas and 23 vs. Nebraska) and he averaged 6.1 yards per rush in the 4th quarter for the year … Had 14 carries for 61 yards in the season opener against Illinois, including a 32-yard run in the third quarter ... Rushed for 120 yards on a career-high 23 carries against Bowling Green ... It was his fourth 100-yard game of his career ... Scored his first TD of the year on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter against BGSU, giving Missouri its first lead of the day ... Ran the ball 15 times for 45 yards against Furman ... Scored his 20th career TD on a one-yard run against Furman ... Had 75 yards on 16 carries against Nevada, Including a season-long 42-yard rush ... Ran for 80 yards on 20 carries against Nebraska on Oct. 8 ... Gained 35 yards on 10 rushes against Oklahoma State ... Scored his third TD of the year from one-yard out early in the second quarter against OSU ... Was one yard shy of his second 100-yard game this season, carrying the ball 22 times for 99 yards against Colorado ... Put the Tigers on the scoreboard with a one-yard rush on the opening drive against CU ... Copied that by scoring on a one-yard TD run on the opening drive against Baylor on Nov. 1, his fifth touchdown of the year and 23rd of his career ... Also caught three passes for 21 yards against Baylor ... Rushed for 68 yards on 13 carries (5.2 ypc) against Kansas State on Nov. 14 ... Scored two touchdowns against KSU, both coming in the fourth quarter on runs of four and 13 yards ... Rushed for 62 yards on 11 carries against Iowa State, all in the first half as an injury kept him out of the second half ... Scored a touchdown on a three-yard run in the first quarter to put the Tigers on the board against ISU ... Had his left knee scoped over the off-season to clean up some nagging issues that affected him during the last half of the 2008 season, and he was held out of drills for the first half of spring camp, but he returned to finish out the spring.

The Coaches

Gary Pinkel

Head Coach
10th Year at Mizzou
Akron, Ohio
Kent State, 1973

In nine years at Missouri, Gary Pinkel has clearly put his mark on the Tigers football program. With back-to-back Big 12 North Championships and six bowls in seven years (including a school-record five straight bowl appearances), Gary Pinkel's vision for success at the University of Missouri has come to fruition, and is pointed toward an even brighter future.

Pinkel ranks third on Mizzou's all-time coaching wins list with a 67-46 record. He is in a select group of MU coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Poweres, as the only coaches to have an MU record above .500 dating back to 1935.

Pinkel has guided Mizzou to six bowl games, joining Dan Devine as the only coaches to do that, and after MU's thrilling 30-23 overtime Alamo Bowl win over Northwestern to conclude the 2008 season, Pinkel became the first coach to lead the Tigers to bowl victories in consecutive seasons since Powers did the trick in 1981 and 1982.

Coaching Experience

Record: 140-83-3 overall in 19 seasons; 67-46 at MU in 9 Seasons

2001-Present	Head Coach, Missouri
1991-2000	Head Coach, Toledo
1984-1990	Offensive Coordinator, Washington
1979-1983	Receivers, Washington
1977-1978	Receivers, Bowling Green
1976	Tight Ends, Washington
1975	Graduate Assistant, Kent State
1974	Student Assistant, Kent State

Playing Experience: Tight End at Kent State (1971-73)
A.P. Honorable Mention All-American (1973)

Over the past seven seasons, Pinkel has led Missouri to a 58-32 record (64.4%) and to bowl games in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009. Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl, Pinkel has won 39 of his last 55 games overall. He is the first coach in school history to earn five straight bowl berths.

Mizzou is coming off a solid 8-5 season in 2009, with a team that was one of the youngest in the nation – with a whopping 34 of its top 44 players who were either freshmen or sophomores. Despite that youth, the Tigers managed to knock off rivals Kansas and Illinois on the way to only the 20th eight-win season in school history – with five of them coming under Pinkel's guidance.

The Mizzou program has elevated itself to among the most consistent in the nation. In the last five seasons, MU has amassed 45 wins – an average of nine wins per season – a figure which ranks as 15th-best in the nation during that stretch.

Missouri has also established its foothold in the Big 12 North, as the Tigers are 14-2 in their last 16 games against Big 12 North teams.

His success has led to an increased commitment to the Tiger Football program from the University, as Pinkel was awarded with a new seven-year contract in November of 2008 that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2015 season. With winning seasons in 2003 (8-5), 2005 (7-5), 2006 (8-5), 2007 (12-2), 2008 (10-4) and 2009 (8-5), Pinkel has directed MU to six of the eight winning campaigns the school has had overall since the 1983 season.

Pinkel's nine-year record at Mizzou stands at 67-46 entering the 2010 season, and in his 19 years overall as a head coach, his teams have a 140-83-3 overall mark.

With a school-record 12 wins in 2007 and 10 more in 2008, MU's two-year win total of 22 was third-most in the nation during that time, trailing only USC (23) and Oklahoma (23). The back-to-back 10-win seasons marked the first such occurrence in Mizzou history, and Pinkel has now directed two of the three double-digit win seasons in school annals.

The Tigers continued to break down barriers in 2008. Missouri picked up a resounding 52-17 win over Nebraska in Lincoln, its first road victory over the Huskers since 1978.

In 2007, Pinkel guided Mizzou to arguably the greatest season in school history. Among the myriad achievements that year included winning a school-record 12 games, claiming MU's first New Year's Day bowl victory since 1966, getting the program's first-ever Big 12 North Division crown, and earning a No.

1 Associated Press national ranking for the first time since 1960 and coming up one win shy of playing for the national championship.

To simply list the highlights surrounding Pinkel's renaissance in Columbia would not do his body of work justice. After all, Mizzou's current run of five-straight bowl games have been the culmination of hard work and determination that began after his hiring on Nov. 30, 2000.

While Pinkel himself would say that it is still a work in progress, his program's numerous accomplishments can be highlighted, which helps to tell this story of football success in Mid-Missouri.

In achieving the program's first No. 1 national ranking since 1960, Missouri raced to a 5-0 start in 2007, including wins over a Rose Bowl bound Illinois team and perennial nemesis Nebraska. The Tigers averaged nearly 42 points per game in those five wins and only a late flurry of points by the Fighting Illini kept any of those games in doubt.

While eventual Big 12 Champion Oklahoma was the lone stumbling block for Pinkel's squad in 2007, the Tigers set numerous school records, including school marks for wins (12), points per game (39.9), total points (558) and total offense (6,864 yards). Most of the offensive records were broken again one year later, as the Tigers' potent spread attack upped those marks to 42.2 points per game, 591 total points in 2008.

For his outstanding achievements both on and off the field in 2007, Pinkel was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards, including the Robinson, Bryant and Munger awards. He also was named the National Coach of the Year by FieldTurf in 2007.

In winning a school-record 12 games in 2007, Mizzou clearly caught the attention of the national football community, as the Tigers began the season unranked but quickly darted up the charts with wins over bowl teams such as Illinois, Texas Tech and Colorado. And after the Tigers defeated arch rival and 2nd-ranked Kansas on Nov. 24th, Mizzou stood atop the college football world, ranked number one for the first and only time since 1960. Mizzou was featured on every college football television show after, and also graced the covers of virtually every prominent national sporting publication, including Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and USA Today.

While the 2007 Tigers cashed in on the steady growth of the program over the previous six seasons, the Tigers also enjoyed an exciting 2006 campaign that saw them win eight regular-season games for just the 10th time in school history, and Missouri's appearance in the Brut Sun Bowl marked MU's third bowl game in four seasons - the first time in 25 years that Mizzou had reached three bowls in four years.

Pinkel and his program successfully built on the momentum created from a scintillating 38-31 win over South Carolina in the 2005 Independence Bowl that saw his Tigers overcome a 21-point deficit. The thrilling win marked the largest come-from-behind win in school history, and it gave Mizzou only its second bowl win in the previous 24 years.

After taking over a program that had fallen on hard times in 2001, Pinkel had increased success in each of his first three seasons, improving from four wins in 2001 to five wins in 2002, to the 2003 squad which went 8-5 and made the school's third bowl appearance since 1983.

Long considered a "sleeping giant" of a program, Mizzou had a breakthrough 2003 season under Pinkel's guidance, as he showed that Tiger Nation can indeed roar again.

The list of accomplishments turned in by the 2003 team was impressive:

The eight regular-season wins marked the first time since 1980 - and only the 4th time since 1960 - that MU had amassed that many wins in the regular season. The team became only the 9th in MU's history to accomplish the feat...

MU went a perfect 6-0 at Faurot Field that season, with the win total marking a school record for one season at home. Mizzou had never won more than five games at Faurot, which opened as Memorial Stadium in 1926. It also marked MU's first unblemished home season since the 1974 team went 5-0...

Mizzou's 41-24 win over #10 Nebraska on Oct. 11th was one for the history books, as it broke a 24-game losing streak to the Huskers for MU, making Pinkel the first Tiger coach to beat Nebraska since Warren Powers in 1978...

The Nebraska win also marked MU's first win over a top-10 opponent since 1981, breaking a string of 45 straight losses to top-10 foes for the school...

Mizzou led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked 6th in the NCAA, in rushing, with an average of 237.46 yards per game. That marked the first time since 1960 that Mizzou has won a conference rushing team title...

The 31st head coach in the program's history, Pinkel was hired on Nov. 30, 2000, and began immediately to prove to his colleagues, alumni, fans and student-athletes that Tiger Football could be a national player.

After a rebuilding year in 2001, Pinkel had Mizzou much improved in his 2nd campaign -- and playing for bowl eligibility entering the Tigers' final game of the season. Tough losses to 3rd-ranked Oklahoma (on a late fourth quarter fake field goal), to 18th-ranked Colorado (in overtime) and a last-second loss at 22nd-ranked Iowa State were all that kept Mizzou out of a bowl game.

Pinkel opened the 2002 campaign by leading MU to one of the program's most impressive season-opening wins in recent history when Mizzou dismantled Illinois -- the defending Big Ten Conference champions and a 2001 BCS Bowl team -- 33-20 in St. Louis, Mo. He later defeated Mizzou's heated rival, the Kansas Jayhawks, as MU downed Kansas 36-12 to give him a 2-0 record vs. KU -- making him only the third coach in school history to win his first two encounters against Kansas.

Pinkel came to Missouri after spending 10 very successful years as head coach at Toledo, where he amassed an impressive 73-37-3 record (65.9%).

The school's alltime winningest coach, Pinkel's last six teams there went a combined 50-18-1 overall. Three of those teams advanced to play in the post-season, capturing one Mid-American Conference championship and three MAC West Division titles. Three of his last five teams at Toledo were ranked in the nation's top 25. His 1995 squad went 11-0-1, and was one of just two schools (national champ Nebraska was the other) to finish the season without a loss.

For his accomplishments at Toledo, Pinkel was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in February of 2009.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Pinkel learned the trade from one of the alltime great coaches, the legendary Don James. For 12 years as an assistant under James at Washington (1979-90), Pinkel helped guide the Huskies to a combined record of 104-37-2 (73.4%) and three Pac-10 Conference titles. He served as UW's offensive coordinator for seven seasons (1984-90), and helped mold one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks.

Pinkel played under James at Kent State University, where he was an all-conference and honorable mention All-American tight end. He graduated in 1973.

Pinkel, graduated from Kenmore High School in Akron, Ohio, and received his bachelor of science degree in education from Kent in 1973. He did post-graduate studies at Kent and Bowling Green, and in 1997 was inducted into the Kent Athletic Hall of Fame. He was born April 27, 1952. Pinkel and his wife, Vicki, have a daughter, Erin, and sons Geoff and Blake.

Five Straight Bowl Games – A Mizzou Record

Cornell Ford

FORD'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Tauras Ferguson, OS – Hon. Men. (2001)
- Shirdonya Mitchell, CB – Hon. Men. (2004)
- Marcus King, CB – Hon. Men. (2005)
- Darnell Terrell, CB – Hon. Men. (2006)
- Carl Gettis, CB – 2nd-Team Freshman All-American (2007), Hon. Men. (2007, 2008, 2009)
- Castine Bridges, CB – Hon. Men. (2008)
- Kevin Rutland, CB – Hon. Men. (2009)

Cornell Ford is in his 17th season as a valuable member of Coach Gary Pinkel's staff, including his 10th at Mizzou working with the Tiger secondary. Beginning with the 2004 season, Ford has coached the Tiger cornerbacks, after he focused on MU's outside safeties his first three years. Ford is also the Tigers' chief recruiter in St. Louis, where he has signed some of the very best players in the state.

Both of Ford's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big 12 status in 2009, with juniors Carl Gettis and Kevin Rutland being named honorable mention all-league by league coaches for their play. Gettis ranked 6th on the team in 2009 with 61 tackles, and led the team with 5 pass break ups, to go with having a hand in 4 turnovers in his third year as a starter (he's earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status each of the last three seasons). Rutland, in his first year as a starter, developed into MU's top corner, as he won honorable-mention all-league status and was named the team's cornerback of the year for his season, which included 47 tackles and a team-high 2 interceptions.

Senior Castine Bridges and sophomore Carl Gettis each won honorable mention all-league acclaim for their play on the Tigers' 10-4 squad in 2008. Gettis further established himself as one of the top young defensive backs in the Big 12 Conference as he ranked 5th on the Tiger squad with 78 tackles, 4 pass break ups and 1 interception. Bridges closed out his Tiger career with 69 tackles and 1 interception, plus a team-high 7 pass break ups.

Mizzou's cornerbacks turned in a solid 2007 season overall, and were a definite reason that the Tiger defense was one of the best in the Big 12 Conference. True freshman Carl Gettis blossomed under Ford's coaching, as he became a starter early in the year and eventually won 2nd-Team Freshman All-American honors for his play. Senior Darnell Terrell was invited to the NFL Combine in the off-season, and later signed a free-agent contract with the Cleveland Browns.

The Tiger secondary was instrumental in MU's defensive improvement in 2006, and Ford's cornerbacks were a big reason why. Led by junior Darnell Terrell, who earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from league coaches, the Tigers ranked 2nd in the Big 12 Conference, and 37th nationally, in pass defense, permitting 185.69 yards per game on average. That fact was even more impressive, considering that sophomore starting CB Domonique Johnson missed five games due to a knee injury midway through the season.

After losing his top performer from 2004 in Shirdonya Mitchell, Ford helped develop his cornerback unit into one that was dependable and steady in 2005. Mizzou ended the 2005 regular season ranking 4th in the Big 12 in pass defense, allowing an average of 212.55 yards per game.

Senior Marcus King blossomed into a big-play performer for the Tiger secondary in 2005, as he led the team with a career-high 13 passes broken up – including a record-breaking 99-yard interception return for a TD in the Independence Bowl win. King earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors by both league coaches and media for his efforts. King later went on to earn a free agent contract with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys following the 2006 NFL Draft, and another Ford protégé, Calvin Washington, was invited to the rookie minicamp of the Washington Redskins following the draft as well.

Just about every one of Ford's cornerbacks had career years under his coaching in 2004, and that performance was instrumental in Mizzou's substantial improvement in defense. Thanks in large part to his cornerbacks, Mizzou led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked 3rd nationally in pass defense in 2004, allowing an average of just 149.27 yards per game.

Senior Shirdonya Mitchell blossomed into a high-level cornerback in 2004 under Ford's direction, as he ranked 5th in the Big 12 Conference, and 33rd nationally, with his 4 interceptions. Mitchell earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors for his play, in only his second year playing defense, and signed a two-year free agent deal with the Miami Dolphins following the 2005 NFL Draft. Juniors Marcus King and A.J. Kincade also had big years, as King tied for the team lead with four turnovers gained (2 interceptions and 2 fumbles) and led the team with 7 pass break ups, while Kincade had a career-high 2 interceptions, including a game-winning pickoff in overtime of the season finale at Iowa State.

In addition to his coaching duties, Ford has worked hard to earn a reputation as one of the most well-trusted recruiting presences in his area of St. Louis. His hard work and straightforward approach has paid off recently, as he has successfully attracted stars such as Will Franklin, Jeremy Maclin and 2008 signees Blaine Gabbert and Wes Kemp to Mizzou. In 2009, he landed Gateway Tech superstar Sheldon Richardson, who was one of the nation's top overall prospects, and this past February, MU signed a class which ranked 21st-best in the nation according to Rivals.com, and that was the highest ranking ever for a Tiger recruiting class.

Ford spent five seasons at Toledo coaching the wide receivers. Toledo graduate Mel Long pulled in 175 receptions in his four-year career, 21 of those for touchdowns. Under Ford, Long became Toledo's all-time leading receiver.

Before Toledo, Ford coached at Marietta College where he coached the quarterbacks, running backs and receivers, while also serving as the team's strength and conditioning coach. Marietta led the conference in rushing offense in 1994 and 1995 and owned the league's top running back both seasons.

Prior to joining the Marietta staff, Ford served two seasons as a graduate assistant at Toledo. He helped with the offensive line in 1992 and the secondary in 1991.

Ford holds a bachelor's degree (1991) in physical education and a master's degree (1993) in sports administration from Toledo.

He and his wife, Dawn, are the parents of a son, Devin, and a daughter, Taylor.

Josh Henson

Co-Offensive Line
2nd Year at Mizzou
Tuttle, Okla.
Oklahoma State, 1998

HENSON'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Elvis Fisher, OL – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Kurtis Gregory, OL – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Dan Hoch, OL – Hon. Men. (2009)

Josh Henson joined the University of Missouri football coaching staff in February of 2009 as its newest assistant coach. The first new hire to join Gary Pinkel's staff since he came to Mizzou in 2001, Henson came aboard to serve as co-offensive line coach. A former standout offensive lineman at Oklahoma State, Henson spent his prior four years as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisiana State University, where he developed the reputation as being a tremendous on-field teacher of the game, while also leading the charge for LSU's recruiting classes which ranked among the top 10 in the nation four times - including a 2009 class recently ranked as No. 2 in the nation according to Rivals.com.

Henson has provided an immediate impact for the Tiger football program, both on and off the field. In 2009, he helped coach a trio of Tiger offensive linemen – senior Kurtis Gregory (2nd-Team), and sophomores Elvis Fisher (Hon. Men.) and Dan Hoch (Hon. Men.) to All-Big 12 honors. The offensive line helped protect first-year starting quarterback Blaine Gabbert well enough so that MU ranked 14th in the nation in passing, while allowing only 20 sacks in 13 games and 467 passing attempts.

In the recruiting battles, Henson quickly helped MU establish ties to areas in which it had little success in recent years, and his efforts helped the Tiger 2010 class to a No. 21 national ranking by Rivals.com – marking the highest ranking ever for an MU recruiting class.

Henson is no stranger to the Big 12 Conference, as he spent 10 years as a player and coach at Oklahoma State, prior to his most recent successful stint as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at LSU. He replaced former Tiger coach Dave Christensen, who was the first assistant to leave Pinkel's staff since coming to MU in 2001. Christensen was named the head coach at Wyoming in December of 2008.

In 2007, Henson's coaching efforts helped LSU sophomore tight end Richard Dickson put together one of the most productive seasons at the position in school history. Dickson turned in the third-highest single-season reception total by a Tiger tight end in school history, and he capped the 2007 season by catching a pair of touchdown passes in LSU's 38-24 win over Ohio State in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game.

The Tiger tight ends played a key role as LSU's offense set a total of 10 school records in 2007, including points in a season and total yards in a season. Following the 2007 season, LSU tight end Keith Zinger was selected in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

As LSU's recruiting coordinator, Henson's abilities made an immediate impact on the Tiger roster as LSU had the nation's No. 2-ranked signing class in 2007 after a consensus top 6 national rating in 2006. For his efforts, Henson was ranked as one of college football's top 25 recruiters in 2006 and 2007 by Rivals.com.

At Oklahoma State, Henson was instrumental in the development of Billy Bajema, who was a three-year starter for the Cowboys. As a senior in 2004, Bajema was one of the top tight ends in the country, earning first-team All-Big 12 honors. Bajema was picked in the seventh round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Henson also played a vital role in OSU's offensive development as the Cowboys ranked among the top 15 scoring teams in the nation for three consecutive years. The Cowboys averaged over 34 points per game from 2002-04, which included 35.9 points per game in 2003 and 34.5 points a game in 2004.

As Oklahoma State's recruiting coordinator, Henson played a key role in OSU's 2003 signing class being ranked No. 15 in the nation by Rivals.com. A year earlier, Rivals.com rated the Cowboy class as the 26th-best in the country.

As a player, Henson was a four-year letterwinner with 40 career starts for Oklahoma State from 1993-97. He was a starter on the offensive line as well as team captain for Oklahoma State's 8-4 team in 1997, a squad that played in the Alamo Bowl against Purdue. He was a second-team All-Big 12 selection as a senior, in addition to being an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick as a junior. Off the field, Henson was named the recipient of the L.L. Boger Award as a senior, an honor that recognizes a student-athlete's achievement both on the field and in the classroom.

Henson graduated from Oklahoma State with a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1998. Upon graduation, he went straight into coaching, serving as a high school football coach in Kingfisher, Okla. In one season at Kingfisher, he helped guide the Yellowjackets to the state semifinals.

Henson returned to Oklahoma State as a graduate assistant in July of 1999, spending one year with the Cowboy offensive line before taking a full-time position with OSU as tight ends coach in 2001.

Henson, 34, is a native of Tuttle, Okla. He and his wife Shauna have a 7-year old son, Will, and a 3-year old daughter, Kate. Henson lists golf, fishing and hunting as his hobbies in his spare time.

- Tommy Saunders, WR – Hon. Men. (2008)
- Danario Alexander, WR – 1st-Team All-American (2009), 1st-Team (2009)
- Jake Harry IV, P – Hon. Men. (2009)

Andy Hill has coached nine seasons under Gary Pinkel and 14 seasons overall at Mizzou, making him the longest tenured coach on the Tiger football staff. Hill has coached the Mizzou wide receivers ever since joining the Missouri staff in 1996, and in 2009, he assumed responsibilities for the Tiger tight ends for the first time.

Over the past three seasons, Hill has coached two of the most prolific wideouts in school history. Danario Alexander's 2009 season saw him lead the NCAA in receiving (137.0 yards per game), as he shattered school records for receptions (113), receiving yards (1,781) and receiving touchdowns (14). Alexander won 1st-Team All-American honors for his efforts in 2009. He ended his career holding the MU career record for receiving yards (2,778).

Hill also works with the Tiger punters, and the 2009 season saw senior Jake Harry IV win honorable mention All-Big 12 honors. Harry ranked 29th nationally in punting average (42.77), and he helped Mizzou rank 4th in the country in team net punting (40.48) – the highest MU has ever finished in the national punt rankings.

The 2008 season saw Hill work to develop sophomore Jeremy Maclin into arguably the most dynamic player in the nation. Maclin set an MU single-season record with 102 catches, 1,260 yards and 13 touchdowns receiving, and he also led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage, with his per-game average of 202.4 yards. The game-changer won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors for his play, as well as being named a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the nation's top receiver. Maclin was taken with the 19th overall selection in the 2009 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Hill's group produced in record numbers during the Tigers' 10-4 season in 2008. Mizzou's passing attack ranked 4th in the NCAA in 2008, with a per-game average of 330.36 yards. In addition to Maclin's many exploits, another pupil of Hill's had a strong close to his Tiger career. Former walk-on Tommy Saunders developed into one of the Big 12's top receiving threats, as he caught 72 passes for 833 yards and seven scores in 2008.

Thanks in no small part to Hill's work with the receivers, Mizzou's offense set myriad records in 2007, as the passing attack ranked 9th in the NCAA, averaging 314.07 yards per game. Two of his pupils, senior Will Franklin and freshman Jeremy Maclin, earned all-league honors for their outstanding play in 2007, including Maclin, who was a consensus 1st-Team All-American for his exploits as both a receiver and return man, in addition to being named 1st-Team All-Big 12 and Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. Franklin, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, won honorable mention All-Big 12 honors.

Under Hill's tutelage in 2006, the Tiger receiving corps was instrumental in helping Mizzou develop into a passing attack that ranked 10th in the country, averaging 276.15 yards per game. Four Tiger wideouts had 25 or more catches, including Franklin (48), Perry (37), Brad Ekwerekwu (32) and Tommy Saunders (25). Franklin earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status for his breakout year, which included 829 yards and six touchdowns in 11 games. Perry, a true freshman, developed quicker than anticipated, as Hill coached him to honorable mention freshman All-American honors.

Hill also doubles as a highly-successful recruiter, primarily in the Kansas City and mid-Missouri areas, as he's been responsible for landing such big names over the years as Martin Rucker, 2008 Mackey Award Winner Chase Coffman, and Tony Temple, among numerous others. He was named by Rivals.com as one of the top-10 recruiters in the Big 12 Conference for 2007.

Hill helped develop Gage into one of the top receivers in the Big 12 Conference and one of the premier wide outs in the country. After converting from quarterback in the spring of 2000, Gage caught 200 passes for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns in three seasons – all MU career receiving records. Gage is now making an impact professionally, where he has been the Tennessee Titans' leading receiver in 2007 and 2008.

Previous to Missouri, Hill was the head football coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Junior College. Hutchinson went 18-6 under Hill, including a 10-2 record in 1995 when it won its first Conference title since 1969 and ranked ninth in the final NJCAA national poll. He was named the conference Coach of the Year. Hill was the offensive coordinator at Hutchinson in 1992 and 1993 after serving as a graduate assistant at SMU in the spring of 1992.

Hill is a Mizzou grad who walked on the Tiger football team in 1980 and eventually earned a scholarship. He lettered in 1980, '81, '83 and '84 and played on Missouri teams that earned trips to the Liberty, Tangerine and Holiday Bowls. In his career, Hill caught 51 passes for 946 yards and scored seven touchdowns. As a senior, he caught 25 passes for 445 yards and three scores. Following his playing days at Missouri, he spent time in the training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs and Calgary Stampeders in 1985 and '86.

Andy and his wife Sarah are the parents of a daughter, Patricia Ryan, and son Andrew. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from MU in 1985. He worked for the athletic department as MU's group sales coordinator in 1988-89, and also worked at American Bank in his hometown of Trenton, Mo., and for Edwards D. Jones Co. in Brookfield.

JONES' ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Zack Abron, TB – 3rd Team (2001), Hon. Men. (2002), 2nd Team (2003)
- Tony Temple, TB – Hon. Men. (2006, 2007)
- Derrick Washington, TB – 2nd Team (2008), Hon. Men. (2009)

Brian Jones has been a member of Gary Pinkel's coaching staff since 1992. He has coached the running game for the past 15 seasons, after beginning his stint coaching wide receivers from 1992-94.

In 2008, Jones took a first-year starter with limited prior experience, in true sophomore Derrick Washington, and helped mold him into one of the Big 12 Conference's top running backs. Washington became only the eighth running back in Mizzou history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, as he tallied 1,036 on 177 carries (5.9 avg.) in 2008. He added 17 rushing touchdowns in his first year as a starter, which was just one shy of the school single season record.

A year ago saw the Tiger run game contribute with 1,651 yards, of which 1,342 came from the trio of junior Derrick Washington, sophomore De'Vion Moore and true freshman Kendial Lawrence. Washington earned honorable mention All-Big 12 acclaim for his season, which included 865 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns, to go with 26 receptions out of the backfield.

Of the eight Tiger running backs with 1,000-yard seasons, Jones has coached four of them in his time on the Mizzou sideline, including one each in three consecutive years, from 2006-08.

Jones helped develop Tony Temple into one of the top ball carriers in the Big 12 Conference in recent years, as the Kansas City, Mo., native ranked second in the league in rushing in 2006, with a career-high 1,063 yards and seven touchdowns, and followed with a 1,039-yard, 12-touchdown campaign in 2008, becoming the first running back in Mizzou history to claim multiple 1,000-yard seasons.

Temple closed his Tiger career in illustrious fashion, as he broke a 52-year old record by rushing for a Cotton Bowl-record 284 yards and four touchdowns in Mizzou's rout of Arkansas. The yardage total was also the second-most in the history of Division I-A bowl games.

With Mizzou's high-flying passing game getting most of the headlines, it's easy to overlook the fact that the Tigers also run the ball very well and very often. Mizzou ran for just under 2,500 yards in 2007 (2,467), and amassed 29 rushing touchdowns as well, providing a nice compliment to the air game. They followed with 2,153 yards and 28 rushing scores in 2008.

Temple earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status by league coaches in both 2006 and 2007. He also ran for 194 yards and two touchdowns in the 2006 Sun Bowl against Oregon State.

Jones' group made steady progress in 2005, and contributed heavily to MU's rushing attack, which ranked 3rd in the Big 12 Conference, and 17th in the NCAA, averaging 205.25 yards per game. Mizzou's tailbacks combined to rush for more than 1,100 yards and tallied 8 TDs in 2005, averaging a healthy 5.6 yards per carry. In May of 2006, Jones was one of only 25 coaches selected to participate in the prestigious NCAA Expert Coaches Academy.

Jones' backs rushed for over 1,200 yards and had 9 of MU's 13 rushing TDs on the season in 2004. They were led by junior Damien Nash, who had 792 yards and 7 TDs, and redshirt freshman Marcus Woods, who had 428 yards and 2 scores. Woods was named 1st-Team Freshman All-Big 12 for his efforts in 2004. Nash was a 5th-round draft pick by the Tennessee Titans in the 2005 NFL Draft.

Mizzou had one of the nation's most potent rushing attacks in 2003, as the Tigers pounded their way to 3,087 yards, good for a per-game average of 237.46 yards that ranked MU 1st in the Big 12 Conference and 6th in the NCAA statistics. It marked the first time since 1960 that MU won a conference rushing championship, when the Tigers led the old Big Eight with a mark of 249.3 yards per game.

Jones' workhorse from 2001-03 was tailback Zack Abron. Abron thrived under Jones' coaching and turned himself into one of the top backs in the Big 12 Conference. Abron rushed for a career-best 1,155 yards in 2003, making him only the 7th 1,000-yard rusher in MU history.

Abron set numerous career records in 2003, as he left MU holding the standard in rushing yards (3,198), touchdowns (42) and points (252). He improved his average yards per rush from 3.6 as a freshman in 2000 to a healthy 5.3 in 2003. Abron was named 2nd-Team All-Big 12 in 2003 for his work, and went on to sign a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons following the 2004 Draft.

During Jones' last two seasons at Toledo, UT's running attack was ranked in the top-10 in the country. In 2000, the Rockets' running game ranked ninth in the country, racking up 253.8 yards per game. UT compiled 2,792 yards on the ground and averaged 5.43 yards per carry. In 1999, Toledo ranked 10th in the country in rushing, compiling 239.2 yards per outing and ranked No. 1 in the nation in yards per attempt (5.35). Jones' protégé Chester Taylor racked up 1,176 yards and ranked 20th in the country, while his rushing average of 6.5 yards per carry ranked second-best in the nation.

In 1995, Toledo led the league and ranked fifth in the nation in rushing, averaging 244.5 yards per game. The Rockets' starting tailback that season, Wasean Tait, broke 16 school records, including yards in a season (1,905) and touchdowns (20). Tait was the named the MAC Player of the Year and garnered second team All-America honors ranking second in the nation in rushing.

Jones came to Toledo from Lafayette College where he served as the wide receivers coach for one season. Prior to that, Jones served three years each as an assistant coach with the Massachusetts (1988-91) and Villanova (1984-87).

He also had coaching stints at Rensselear Polytechnic Institute (1983-84), Norwich (VT) University (1982-83) and the New York Institute of Technology (1981-82).

Jones was an offensive lineman at the University of Connecticut, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing in 1980. He also holds a Master of Science degree in administration and physical education from Norwich (1983).

Jones was born in Jamaica and raised in New York City. He and his wife, Mary Kay, are the parents of sons Grant and Brandon, and daughter Audrey.

KULIGOWSKI'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Keith Wright, DL – 2nd Team (2001, 2002)
- Antwaun Bynum, DE – Hon. Men. (2001), 3rd Team (2002)
- Atiyyah Ellison, DL – 3rd Team (2003), 1st Team (2004)
- C.J. Mosley, DL – 2nd Team (2003), 1st Team (2004)
- Brian Smith, DE – Hon. Men. (2003, 2004), 2nd Team (2005, 2006), Freshman All-American (2003)
- Xzavie Jackson, DE – Hon. Men. (2006)
- Lorenzo Williams, DL – Hon. Men. (2006), 1st-Team (2007)
- Tommy Chavis, DE – Hon. Men. (2007)
- Ziggy Hood, DL – Hon. Men. (2007), 1st-Team (2008)
- Stryker Sulak, DE – 2nd-Team (2007, 2008)
- Jaron Baston, DL – Hon. Men. (2008), 2nd-Team (2009)
- Aldon Smith, DE – 3rd-Team All-American (2009), 1st-Team Freshman All-American (2009), Big 12 Defensive Newcomer/ Freshman of the Year (2009), 2nd-Team (2009)

Craig Kuligowski is in his 19th season alongside Gary Pinkel, including his 15th season coaching the defensive line. One of the more underrated assistant coaches in the nation, Kuligowski has coached four Tigers to 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors, including one in two consecutive seasons recently – Lorenzo Williams in 2007, followed by Ziggy Hood in 2008.

Coach "Kul" debuted a star pupil in 2009 – redshirt freshman end Aldon Smith – who turned out to be one of the top freshmen in the entire nation. Smith was named the Big 12 Conference Defensive Freshman/Newcomer of the Year, in unanimous fashion, and he also earned 3rd-Team All-American honors, as well as 1st-Team Freshman All-American honors for his outstanding play in 2009.

Smith broke the MU single-season quarterback sacks record in 2009, with 11.5. He also had 19 tackles for loss in his first year on the field for Mizzou, and he led all of the nation's freshmen in both sacks and tackles for loss. Smith was joined by senior Jaron Baston (2nd-Team All-Big 12) in receiving all-conference honors in 2009.

Kuligowski's defensive line was stout against the run in 2009, as it helped the Tiger defense to a national ranking of 26th against the run (allowing 118.62 yards per game). The ranking and yards allowed were the lowest by Mizzou against the run since the 1983 team ranked 5th in the country with an average of 97.70 yards per game.

Hood, and another star disciple, defensive end Stryker Sulak (who earned 2nd-Team All-Big 12 mention in both 2007 and 2008) were eventually taken in the 2009 NFL Draft, with Hood going in the first round with the 32nd overall pick by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers, with Sulak going in the 6th round to the Oakland Raiders.

In 2007, Kuligowski coached all four of his starters on the Tiger defensive line to at least honorable mention All-Big 12 honors, including Lorenzo Williams, who claimed 1st-Team mention.

The 2006 season also saw Kuligowski's pupils succeed at a high level, as he coached standout defensive ends Brian Smith, Xzavie Jackson and tackle Lorenzo Williams to All-Big 12 honors, with Smith earning 2nd-Team mention.

Despite being hurt severely by injuries in 2006, the Tiger defensive line was a disruptive force early and often, as they amassed 28 combined sacks of MU's overall 36 sacks on the season which were the second-most in school history (41 sacks in 1982 is the MU record). Smith was a catalyst, as he broke MU's career sack record before breaking his hip in game eight against Kansas State.

Facing arguably the biggest rebuilding job at any position on the team in 2005, Kuligowski oversaw a defensive line that grew into a solid unit, despite losing three starters from 2004 to the NFL. Junior defensive end Brian Smith blossomed into an every-down player, ranking among the best in the Big 12 with 9 QB sacks, 17 tackles for loss and 12 QB hurries. Smith earned 2nd-Team All-Big 12 accolades for his performance.

Kuligowski's line was a focal point for the Tiger defense in 2004, and a major reason for the overall improvement of the defense. Three of his pupils – tackles Atiyyah Ellison and C.J. Mosley, and end Brian Smith – earned various All-Big 12 honors for their play in 2004, with Ellison and Mosley pulling in 1st-Team distinction. Redshirt freshman Lorenzo Williams also earned 1st-Team Freshman All-Big 12 honors by The Sporting News.

Two of Kuligowski's protégés were drafted as part of the 2005 NFL Draft, as tackles Atiyyah Ellison (3rd round) and C.J. Mosley (6th round) were picked by the Carolina Panthers and Minnesota Vikings, respectively. Later, defensive end Zach Ville signed a free agent deal with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Under Kuligowski's leadership, the Tiger defensive line proved to be the strength of MU's defense in 2002. Wright led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked in the top-10 nationally, with 23 tackles for loss in 2002, while Bynum ranked among conference leaders in sacks, fumbles forced and tackles for loss.

Bynum earned first team All-Big 12 honors in 2002, and was named an honorable mention All-American by CNNSI.com, while Wright was a first team All-Big 12 pick by various outlets. Wright's development led to him being a 6th-round selection by the Houston Texans in the 2003 NFL Draft.

Kuligowski was credited with building one of the top defensive lines in the MAC during his tenure at Toledo. In 2000, the Rockets were ranked fifth in the country in rushing defense, allowing just 81.5 yards per game and 2.46 yards per carry. They were ranked third in the country in scoring defense, third in total defense and No. 1 in turnover margin.

In 1997, Kuligowski coached first team All-MAC lineman Jason Richards, who signed with the NFL's Tennessee Titans.

Kuligowski was a four-year standout at Toledo (1987-90) as an offensive tackle. He was named first team All-MAC two straight years and helped lead UT to the MAC title his senior year. He was an integral part of the 1990 offense that turned in totals of 135 rushing first downs, 2,474 rushing yards and 4,335 total yards, all top five marks in Toledo history.

Kuligowski earned a bachelor of business administration degree from Toledo in 1991. He and his wife Mary have two daughters: Peyton and Madeline, and son Max, who was born in March of 2005.

Barry Odom

Safeties
8th Year at Mizzou
Maysville, Okla.
Missouri, 1999

ODOM'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Jasper Simmons, S – Hon. Men. (2009)

In his eighth year on staff at Mizzou is former Tiger standout linebacker Barry Odom. After serving the previous six seasons in various administrative roles, the former high school head coach took the opportunity to get back into the coaching side in February of 2009, when he was named the Tigers' new safeties coach by Head Coach Gary Pinkel.

A valuable part of the football program's operations since 2003, Odom showed his versatility when he jumped into recruiting responsibilities in December of 2008 to fill the void when former Tiger assistant Dave Christensen left to become head coach at the University of Wyoming just after MU's 2008 Alamo Bowl victory. Odom's hard work and personable nature helped secure the signings of in-state standouts Justin Britt, Mark Hill, Alex Sanders, as well as getting a late commitment from Louisiana's L'Damian Washington. He's also been the lead recruiter on a handful of signees with MU's 2010 recruiting class unveiled in February which was ranked 21st nationally by Rivals.com – marking the highest-ranked class in Tiger history.

In his first year on the coaching staff, Odom oversaw the rapid development in first-year junior college transfer Jasper Simmons into an instant impact player. Simmons earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status for his play in 2009 under Odom's direction, as he also received votes for the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year. Simmons ended his season ranking fourth on the team with 73 tackles, and added two forced fumbles, one recovered fumble and an interception which helped seal Mizzou's win against Big 12 North rival Iowa State.

Odom made the jump to the collegiate ranks in 2002 after spending three seasons at the high school level, including a very successful two-year stint as head coach at Columbia's Rock Bridge High School.

The 2008 season was Odom's second as Director of Football Operations, after handling the duties of Director of Football Recruiting for the previous two seasons. Prior to the 2007 season, he added assistant athletic director to his title. Some of the many duties he performed in that role included overseeing the coordination of the team's travel plans, oversight of the football budget, handling compliance issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day overall operations for the football program.

Odom also coordinated all public relations activities and community service events that required the presence of football student-athletes, and oversaw all organizational aspects from a football perspective related to Mizzou's 2007 Cotton Bowl and 2008 Alamo Bowl trips.

He also served a key role as part of the design and planning team for MU's $16 million expansion and renovation project of the Mizzou Athletics Training Complex which is the state-of-the-art day-to-day home for the Tiger football program.

Odom, a native of Maysville, Okla. who graduated from Ada High School, was a four-year letterman at linebacker for Mizzou from 1996-99. He was a key player on MU squads that went to bowl games in 1997 and 1998, and he ended his career ranked 5th on the school's career tackles list, with 362 stops.

Odom graduated from MU in December of 1999, and served as a development intern for the Tiger Scholarship Fund, assisting with various fund raising projects for Tiger Athletics while earning his Master's in education from MU. He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of 2000 to serve as an assistant coach for Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state championship.

Odom returned to Columbia in the spring of 2001 as head coach of Rock Bridge High School, and he quickly built the Bruins into a power, as they went 6-4 and won a conference championship that fall. He followed with an 8-4 campaign in 2002 that saw Rock Bridge reach the semifinals of the state championship playoffs.

Born Nov. 26, 1976 in Lawton, Okla., Odom and his wife, Tritia, were married in July of 2000. Tritia is a native of Kahoka, Mo., and is a graduate of MU's College of Human Environmental Sciences. The couple has two sons – James Trump Odom and Garyt Robert.

Dave Steckel

Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers
10th Year at Mizzou
Fullerton, Pa.
Kutztown, 1982

STECKEL'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Sean Doyle, LB – Hon. Men. (2001, 2002)
- Jamonte Robinson, LB – 2nd Team (2001)
- James Kinney, LB – Hon. Men. (2002), 2nd Team (2003), 1st Team (2004)
- Brandon Barnes, LB – Hon. Men. (2003)
- Marcus Bacon, LB – 1st Team (2006)
- Dedrick Harrington, LB – Hon. Men. (2006)
- Brock Christopher, LB – Hon. Men (2007, 2008)
- Sean Weatherspoon, LB – 1st Team (2007, 2008, 2009), Butkus Finalist (2008, 2009), 3rd-Team All-American (2008), 2nd-Team All-American (2009)
- Will Ebner, LB – Hon. Men. (2009)

Dave Steckel is in his 10th season at Missouri as the Tigers' linebacker coach, and the 2010 campaign will be his second with the added duties of defensive coordinator – a position he was awarded with by Head Coach Gary Pinkel in February of 2009 following the departure of former coordinator Matt Eberflus to the NFL's Cleveland Browns.

Steckel has consistently produced results with his linebacking corps at Mizzou. He is also a highly-successful recruiter, primarily in the state of Texas. A passionate and enthusiastic teacher of the game of football, Steckel has mentored his linebackers over the years with positive results, as his protégés have won 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors four straight years, and five of the last six overall.

Under Steckel, the Missouri defense followed the fire of its new coordinator in 2009 with an attacking style of play. The Tiger rush defense excelled, thanks to his linebackers and a stout defensive line, and ended the season ranked 26th in the NCAA against the run (118.62 avg.) – that figure is the lowest rushing average allowed in a season by a Tiger defense since the 1983 squad ranked 5th nationally with an average of 97.70 per game.

Sean Weatherspoon concluded his stellar Tiger career by winning 2nd-Team All-American honors, as well as being named a 1st-Team All-Big 12 performer for the third straight year – making him the first Tiger in the Big 12 era to achieve 1st-Team all-league status three times. Weatherspoon ended third on MU's career tackles chart, and went on to become a first-round selection in April's 2010 NFL Draft (Atlanta, #19 overall). Sophomore Will Ebner also emerged as a steady force in the middle of the field, as he earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors for his play, which featured 78 tackles to rank him 3rd on the squad in 2009.

Steckel's group helped lead the Tiger defense in 2008, with junior Sean Weatherspoon commanding the lion's share of attention. "Spoon" turned in a very impressive season that saw him earn 1st-Team All-Big 12 acclaim, as well as 3rd-Team All-American honors, based on his 155 tackles. He was also named a finalist for the prestigious Butkus Award, and he repeated in 2009 as a finalist for the award again.

Weatherspoon was joined in the 100-tackle club in 2008 by senior Brock Christopher, who totaled a career-high 105 stops. Christopher won honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors for his play for a second straight year in 2008.

Steckel returned to Gary Pinkel's coaching staff in 2001 after spending five seasons as the linebacker and defensive line coach at Rutgers University.

Steckel helped mold James Kinney into a prolific tackler, as he ended his Tiger career by breaking the MU career tackles record (434) during his senior season of 2004. He earned 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors for his efforts, and signed a free-agent deal with the Jacksonville Jaguars after the 2005 NFL Draft.

In his nine seasons at Mizzou, Steckel has had at least one of his linebackers earn all-league recognition each year, including two each in the 2001, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons.

The 2006 season featured stellar play from senior standouts Marcus Bacon and Dedrick Harrington. Bacon earned 1st-Team All-Big 12 acclaim for his play that featured a team-best 112 tackles.

One of MU's top recruiters, Steckel has helped land numerous all-stars for Mizzou, primarily out of the state of Texas. He was responsible for the successful recruitment of Southlake Carroll High School quarterback Chase Daniel. Daniel was a Heisman Trophy finalist, finishing fourth in the 2007 Heisman voting. Steckel was able to attend the prestigious ceremony in New York City that December.

Two of Steckel's stars were honored for their play in 2003, as Kinney was named 2nd-Team All-Big 12 by the Associated Press, while Barnes earned Honorable Mention acclaim. Barnes impressed enough people that he eventually signed a free agent contract following the 2004 NFL Draft with the Baltimore Ravens, and later played for the Washington Redskins.

At Rutgers, Steckel coached two all-conference defensive linemen from 1996-99, both of whom went on to play in the NFL. In 2000, Steckel moved to coach the linebackers. He served as one of Rutgers' chief recruiters.

Before Rutgers, Steckel coached the defensive line for Pinkel at Toledo from 1992-95. He was the defensive line coach during the 1995 undefeated season that went on to win the Las Vegas Bowl. Steckel helped coach a defensive unit that ranked No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference and 12th nationally. One of those players, Dan Williams, was the 11th overall selection in the 1993 NFL Draft.

Steckel served in the United States Marine Corps from 1975-78. He then went on to graduate from Kutztown State College and earned a master's from Miami (Ohio) in 1982.

He is married to the former Mary Beth Thomas of Floyd's Knob, Ind. They have one beautiful daughter named Amanda.

Bruce Walker

Co-Offensive Line
10th Year at Mizzou
East Wenatchee, Wash.
Central Washington, 1983

WALKER'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Dwayne Blakley, TE – Hon. Men. (2001)
- J.D. McCoy, TE – Hon. Men. (2003)
- Martin Rucker, TE – 2nd-Team Freshman All-American (2004), Hon. Men. (2005), 1st-Team (2006), Consensus 1st-Team All-American (2007), 1st-Team (2007)
- Chase Coffman, TE – 1st-Team Freshman All-American (2005), 1st-Team (2006, 2008), 2nd-Team (2007), Mackey Award Winner (2008), Consensus 1st-Team All-American (2008)
- Elvis Fisher, OL – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Kurtis Gregory, OL – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Dan Hoch, OL – Hon. Men. (2009)

Bruce Walker made a move in 2009 to serve as co-offensive line coach, a position he had assisted with for the previous 13 seasons under Gary Pinkel, while also being in charge of the tight ends. He made a name for himself one of the top tight ends coaches in the nation the past several years, as he helped develop Martin Rucker and Chase Coffman into two of the most accomplished players in the nation. Each won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors in 2007 (Rucker) and 2008 (Coffman), and Coffman capped his record-breaking career by winning the John Mackey Tight End Award. Coffman became the first Tiger in history to win a national individual honor that is specific to a position group.

In Walker's first year as co-offensive coach in 2009, his group excelled at protecting first-year starting QB Blaine Gabbert. Mizzou ranked 14th in the nation in passing while allowing only 20 sacks in 13 games. Three of Walker's linemen – senior Kurtis Gregory (2nd-Team), and sophomores Elvis Fisher (Hon. Men.) and Dan Hoch (Hon. Men.) – all earned Big 12 honors. Gregory earned an invitation to the NFL Combine this past February.

From 2004-08, Walker had the luxury of working with the best pair of tight ends in the nation, in Martin Rucker and Chase Coffman. Rucker culminated his outstanding Tiger career with an award-winning season in 2007, as he was a consensus 1st-Team All-American, becoming MU's first All-American tight end since the great Kellen Winslow in 1978. Rucker caught an MU-record 84 passes in 2007 for 834 yards and 8 touchdowns, while also being a finalist for the John Mackey Tight End Award. Rucker was selected in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Coffman caught 90 passes for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2008, despite missing two games due to injury, and he ended his career with school records of 247 receptions and 30 touchdowns, to go with the 2nd-most receiving yardage in MU history (2,659). He was a third-round NFL Draft pick in 2009 by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Each player won 1st-Team All-Big 12 honors in 2006 (Rucker from coaches, Coffman from media), and Coffman was a semi-finalist for the John Mackey Award. The duo combined to catch 111 passes for 1,149 yards and 14 touchdowns in 2006.

In 2005, Rucker earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors after leading MU with 47 catches for 567 yards and 1 TD, with his catches ranking 1st among Big 12 tight ends in 2005, and 2nd-most in MU single-season history for the position. Coffman, despite being a true freshman, was nothing but impressive from day one in fall camp, as he tied Rucker with 47 catches for 503 yards and 4 TDs. Those numbers ranked at the time as the 3rd-best single-season performance in MU tight end history, and earned the rookie a spot on the Rivals.com Freshman All-American 1st-Team.

In 2004, the tight ends were instrumental in MU's passing attack, with the primary weapons being senior Victor Sesay and redshirt freshman Martin Rucker. Rucker earned 2nd-Team Freshman All-American honors for his standout rookie year that saw him grab 19 balls for 263 yards and 4 TDs. Sesay signed a free agent contract following the 2005 NFL Draft with the Miami Dolphins.

In 2001, Missouri tight ends combined for 50 receptions, 484 yards and eight TDs. Dwayne Blakley was tabbed honorable mention All-Big 12 after pulling in 34 receptions for 362 yards and four touchdowns. He went on to sign a free agent contract with the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, and later played with the Atlanta Falcons.

Walker has successfully recruited some of the best high school players out of Texas while at Mizzou. Walker signed highly-regarded DE Brian Smith (Denton) in 2002 and all-state wide receiver Thomson Omboga (Grand Prairie) in 2001. Smith went on to become Mizzou's alltime career quarterback sacks leader and was drafted by the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. Walker also inked safety Justin Garrett, who was a productive multi-year starter for the Tigers, and recently signed Jacquies Smith of Dallas, who made big impressions while earning significant playing time in 2008 as a true freshman defensive end. His recruiting bounty of several stars in 2010 helped the Tiger recruiting class garner a national ranking of 21st-best in the nation – the highest a Tiger class has ever been ranked.

While at Toledo, Walker coached two of the best tight ends to ever wear a Rockets' uniform. From 1998-2000, Walker coached All-MAC tight end Mike Bilik. He also coached Lyle Green, who was voted the team's most valuable receiver in 1999 and a co-captain in 2000. Green was the third overall pick in the 2001 CFL Draft.

In 1993, behind Walker's offensive line, Central Washington led all NAIA schools in total offense, averaging 517 yards per game. CWU also ranked first in the NAIA in rushing, averaging 198.5 yards per game. In 1995, the Wildcats earned a share of the NAIA national title, tying Findlay (OH) in the title game.

The quarterback of that team, Jon Kitna, finished his career with 12,907 yards in total offense and 12,353 passing yards, the best and second-best, respectively, in NAIA Division II history.

Walker graduated from Eastmont High School in East Wenatchee, Wash., where he earned All-Mid Valley League honors at linebacker and center. He played two seasons at Yakima Valley College before Central Washington.

A 1983 graduate of CWU, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration, Walker was a two-year starter for the Wildcats at center. He earned a Master of Science degree in physical education in 1989.

Walker and wife, Sharryn, are the parents of Natalie and Maggie.

YOST'S ALL-BIG 12 PERFORMERS

- Brad Hammerich, PK – 3rd Team (2001)
- Brad Smith, QB – Hon. Men. (2002, '04, '05), 3rd Team (2003)
- Mike Matheny, PK – Hon. Men. (2002)
- Chase Daniel, QB – 2nd Team (2006), 1st Team (2007), 2nd-Team All-American (2007), Heisman, O'Brien, Maxwell Finalist (2007), Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year (2007), Draddy, Manning, Wuerffel, Unitas Finalist (2008), Hon. Men. All-American (2008), Hon. Men. (2008)
- Jeff Wolfert, PK – Hon. Men. (2006), 1st Team (2007, 2008), Hon. Men. All-American (2007)
- Blaine Gabbert, QB – Hon. Men. (2009)
- Grant Ressel, PK – 1st-Team All-American (2009), 1st-Team (2009)

David Yost has been with Gary Pinkel for the past 14 seasons, and the 2010 campaign will be his 10th season at Mizzou. Pinkel's recruiting coordinator since 1997, Yost also serves as the Tigers' quarterbacks coach and placekickers coach at Mizzou.

He also added some very important duties to his plate prior to the 2009 season, as he took over as Mizzou's offensive coordinator.

In his first season as coordinator, the offense ranked 14th in the nation in passing, averaging 285.46 yards per game, despite a first-year starter at quarterback. In all, the Tiger offense ranked 32nd in the nation in total offense.

Blaine Gabbert continued MU's recent success at the quarterback position, following in the footsteps of Tiger legends Chase Daniel and Brad Smith. Gabbert threw for 3,593 yards (the 3rd-most in MU single-season history) and 24 touchdowns, and won honorable mention All-Big 12 status.

As if that weren't enough for his ledger, Yost helped mold first-year starting kicker Grant Ressel into a 1st-Team All-American. Ressel stepped into the kicking job vacated by former record-setter Jeff Wolfert, who left holding the NCAA career accuracy record for combined kicks. All Ressel did in his first year as a starter was break the NCAA single-season accuracy mark for combined kicks, as he connected on an amazing 65-of-66 total kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 extra points.

Yost has been instrumental in the development of MU's renowned spread attack. The Tigers broke numerous offensive school records in 2008, thanks to the play of Yost's star pupil, quarterback Chase Daniel. In putting together only the third 10-win season in school history, the Tigers established records for points (591), points per game (42.2) and passing yards (4,625), just to name a few.

Yost has to be considered one of the top quarterback coaches in the nation, based on his work in helping develop Daniel, and his predecessor, Brad Smith. Daniel had an amazing three-year run as a starter come to a close in 2008, and he left holding virtually every major passing and total offense record on the books. The 22 wins amassed over the 2007 and 2008 seasons ranked third nationally during that stretch, trailing only Oklahoma and USC.

Daniel caught the nation's attention during the 2007 season, as he amassed 4,559 yards of total offense (ranking 7th in the NCAA) and 4,306 passing yards with 33 touchdowns while leading MU to a record 12 wins and a final No. 4 Associated Press top-25 ranking. That December, a proud Yost got to join Daniel for an experience of a lifetime, as Daniel was one of four invitees to the Heisman Trophy ceremony in New York City, where he finished fourth.

Yost has established himself as one of the best recruiting coordinators in the country, as evidenced by MU's recent classes, including the 2010 class which was ranked 21st-best – MU's highest-ever ranked class. The 2008 class was MU's previous best, at 24th. He has also been instrumental in helping attract some highly-touted stars to Mizzou, most recently among those Blaine Gabbert, who was rated as the nation's top-rated pro-style quarterback prospect.

He is also known for his work with former record-setting quarterback Brad Smith. Yost helped guide Smith through four magical seasons that saw him break an eye-popping 69 different Mizzou, Big 12 and NCAA records. Under Yost's tutelage, Smith became the greatest run-pass dual threat QB in NCAA Division I-A history, as he was the first athlete to throw for 8,000 yards and rush for 4,000 yards in a career. In 2005 alone, Smith amassed 2,304 yards in the air and 1,301 more on the ground – making him the first player in NCAA D-IA history to reach the 2,000/1,000 mark twice in a career.

In 2006, but Yost helped develop sophomore Chase Daniel into one of the most prolific passers in school history. As a first-year starter, Daniel earned 2nd-Team All-Big 12 status, ranking 5th in the nation in total offense, averaging 300.5 yards per contest.

Yost oversaw the transformation of previously unheralded walk-on Jeff Wolfert into one of the best stories in all of college football. Wolfert, who won the kicking job in fall camp just prior to the 2006 season, had kicked in just one high school game before coming to MU as a scholarship diver on the men's swim team. After seeing no action as a walk-on in 2005, Wolfert emerged from the pack in camp and was simply amazing as he connected on an MU-record 18 field goals and was a perfect 45-of-45 on extra points to earn himself on the prestigious Lou Groza Award list of semifinalists.

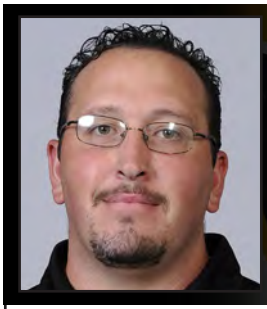
Wolfert followed with an even better year in 2007, as he made an amazing 88-of-92 combined kicks (21-of-25 field goals, 67-of-67 extra points) and won honorable mention All-America honors, as he scored an MU single-season record 130 points. He closed his career in 2008 by repeating as a 1st-Team All-Big 12 pick, and ended as the most accurate kicker in NCAA history for combined field goals and extra points (185-of-185 extra points, 59-of-72 field goals).

The 2002 season saw Yost guide Smith, a redshirt freshman, during an historical season as he became only the second player in NCAA Division I-A history to throw for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Smith was at it again in 2003, as he broke his own single-season total offense record, with 3,383 yards. He ended the season with 1,977 passing yards and rushed for 1,406 yards, the latter of which is the No. 2 single-season rushing mark in MU history.

From 1997 to 2000, Yost held the same duties for Pinkel at Toledo. He spent four seasons coaching two of the most productive QBs in Toledo history in Tavares Bolden and Chris Wallace.

A native of Carrollton, Ohio, Yost spent time coaching his former high school team after graduating from Kent State, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in early childhood education. He has done graduate work in educational psychology. He was married to the former Carrie Crossett, a former soccer student-athlete at Mizzou (and sister of former MU kicker Adam Crossett) in June of 2005, and the couple had their first child, daughter Kennedy Caroline, in December of 2006. Son, Keaton, was born in December of 2008.



Nick Otterbacher

Director of Football Recruiting
7th Year at Mizzou
Tampa, Fla.
Toledo, 2002

In his seventh year as part of the Tiger coaching staff – and fourth in his title of director of football recruiting – is Nick Otterbacher. He assumed those duties after serving as an offensive graduate assistant coach for the 2006 season, when he helped coach a Tiger offense that broke numerous school records and ranked eighth in the nation in total offense (425.62 yards per game).

In his current role, Otterbacher oversees organizational efforts of virtually all aspects of MU's extensive recruiting program operations, such as coordinating on-and-off campus visits, mailings and other logistical arrangements. Mizzou's 2010 recruiting class was ranked 21st-best in the nation according to Rivals.com, which marked the highest-ever ranking for a Tiger class of recruits. The 2009 class was another highly-regarding group of athletes that Otterbacher helped assemble for the program.

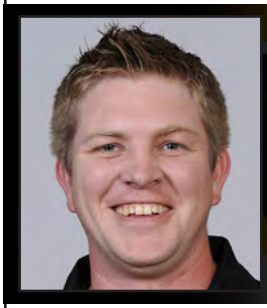
Otterbacher served as an offensive graduate assistant coach for the 2005 and 2006 seasons, after serving on staff as an administrative graduate assistant in 2004.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Otterbacher was a four-year starter at center for Toledo, where he played under Tiger Coach Gary Pinkel through the 2000 season. In his four-year career, Otterbacher was part of Toledo teams that went a combined 34-13, and won or shared three MAC championships, while playing in the Motor City Bowl in 2001.

After graduating from Toledo with a degree in business management in May of 2002, Otterbacher got his start in coaching at Duquesne, where he served as the tight ends and assistant offensive line coach for the 2002 season which included an 11-1 record and conference championship.

He then went to West Virginia Tech as an assistant coach, and was the offensive line coach and run game coordinator and recruiting coordinator for the 2003 season, prior to joining the Mizzou staff in July of 2004.

He and his wife, Jessica, have a daughter, Reagan, and a son, Kaine Charles Cotton Otterbacher, who was born in Dallas, Texas, the week of MU's 2008 Cotton Bowl victory over Arkansas.



Dan Hopkins

Director of Football Operations
4th Year at Mizzou
Harrisonville, Mo.
Missouri, 2004

Dan Hopkins, a 2004 University of Missouri graduate, is in his second season as Director of Football Operations, after being promoted to that post prior to the 2009 season. Previously, he spent two years as the Tiger Football staff's administrative graduate assistant.

In his current role, Hopkins is involved in a wide variety of important administrative duties that involve the Tiger program.

Some of his many duties include overseeing the coordination of the team's travel plans, oversight of the football budget, handling compliance issues, scheduling of facilities, assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day overall operations for the football program. He was also a lead figure in planning and executing the Tigers' trip to Houston, Texas for the 2009 Texas Bowl.

Hopkins also is responsible for coordinating all public relations activities and community service events that require the presence of football student-athletes.

The Harrisonville, Mo. native made a return to his alma mater prior to the 2007 season as a graduate assistant coach, where he assisted the Tiger coaching staff with various recruiting administrative duties throughout the year, as well as lending a hand with scouting and game preparation efforts during the season.

A 2004 graduate of the Missouri School of Journalism, Hopkins served as a student assistant coach for the Mizzou Football team for the 2003 and 2004 seasons. Following his graduation, he served as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach at William Jewell College for two seasons, before moving to Central Missouri State University, where he was the defensive graduate assistant coach for the 2006 season.

Hopkins is currently pursuing his Master's degree in health education and promotion at Mizzou.

Brandon Barnes

Offensive Graduate Assistant
3rd Year at Mizzou
Sikeston, Mo.
Missouri, 2004

In his third year on the Tiger coaching staff, and second on the offensive side of the ball in 2010, is former Mizzou standout linebacker Brandon Barnes. Barnes returned to his alma mater in June of 2008, and spent the 2008 season as defensive quality control graduate assistant.

Among his many duties as offensive graduate assistant, Barnes, who originally came to Mizzou as a wide receiver, assists the Tiger offensive staff with scouting, game planning and game preparation duties, in addition to various practice and game-day responsibilities, among other responsibilities.

In his previous role of defensive quality control graduate assistant, Barnes was responsible for assisting with day-to-day operations of the defensive staff, including video breakdown, scouting, computer and video informational input.

The Sikeston, Mo. native won honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors as a senior for Mizzou in 2003, when he notched a career-best 117 tackles, adding 10 tackles for loss, one sack, two interceptions, three fumble recoveries and one forced fumble for Gary Pinkel's first winning season at MU. That squad went 8-5 and reached the 2003 Independence Bowl.

Barnes earned his undergraduate degree from Mizzou in interdisciplinary studies in May of 2004, and signed a free agent contract with the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League following the 2004 NFL Draft. He played with the Ravens as part of their practice squad through week three of that season, and was then picked up by the Washington Redskins, where he played the rest of the season, primarily on special teams. Barnes was with the Redskins through September of 2005 before his playing days came to an end.

Following his pro career, Barnes worked in commercial sales in Kansas City, and then switched to advertising sales in 2007, before making the move to the coaching ranks. He is pursuing a master's degree in health education at MU.

Barnes is married to the former Deon Hollis, a Kansas City native who is also a Mizzou graduate, and also was part of the Tiger Hostess group in her days at MU. The couple was blessed with their first child in February of 2010, when son Edward Jackson Barnes was born. They also have a Terrier dog named Jada, who Barnes got from former teammate, the late Damien Nash.

Marcus Yokeley

Defensive Graduate Assistant
2nd Year at Mizzou
Marshall, Mo.
Truman State, 2006

In his second year on the Tiger coaching staff is Marshall, Mo. native Marcus Yokeley. Yokeley came on board prior to the start of Mizzou's 2009 spring camp, in the role of offensive quality control graduate assistant, and in 2010, he has taken on the new duties of defensive graduate assistant.

In his new role, Yokeley, a 2006 graduate of Truman State University, is responsible for the offensive scout team in preparation for each week's game, along with film breakdown and scouting reports for each of the Tigers' opponents, among other duties.

In his prior role working with offensive quality control, Yokeley was responsible for assisting with day-to-day operations of the offensive coaching staff, including video breakdown, scouting, computer and video informational input, as well as providing various assistance with recruiting operations.

Yokeley came to Mizzou after spending four years in various roles on the Lindenwood University football staff, including his last three seasons as an assistant coach, working as defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator. He began at Lindenwood as a graduate assistant coach in 2006, working with the outside linebackers. While at Lindenwood, he earned a masters' in education, with an emphasis on strength and conditioning.

During his playing days, Yokeley was a defensive back who earned honorable mention all-conference honors at the position at Truman State in 2004, and then served as team captain in both 2005 and 2006. In his prep days, he earned 1st-Team All-State defensive back honors in 2002 at Marshall High School.

Yokeley earned his undergraduate degree from Truman State in psychology. While working as part of the Tiger coaching staff, Yokeley is also currently pursuing his PhD at Mizzou in Health Education and Promotion.

Kathryn Lucchesi

2nd Year at Mizzou
Multimedia Graduate Assistant
Springfield, Ill.
Missouri, 2009

Kathryn Lucchesi is beginning her second football season at a newly created position – Multimedia Graduate Assistant.

You can usually find Lucchesi on the sideline of football games and practices shooting highlights. She shoots and edits numerous videos and photos for the team's newest web site and blog, WeAreMizzou.com. She also assists the Tiger coaching staff with various recruiting duties throughout the year.

A graduate of the Missouri School of Journalism, with an emphasis in Broadcasting, Lucchesi joined the Mizzou staff in the fall of 2009 as a graduate assistant, where she helped the program grow in the social media world.

Before working with the athletic department, Lucchesi was a reporter and anchor at KOMU-TV8 in Columbia. She began as a news reporter, but focused her stories on sports during her last year at the television station, and she contributed heavily to the This Week In Mizzou Football television show throughout the season.

She is currently working toward her Master's Degree at the University of Missouri.

(NOTE — The passing efficiency formula has been used by the NCAA since 1979 to rate quarterbacks. The formula assumes that touchdowns are as good as interceptions are bad; therefore, these two figures offset each other for the average player. To determine Efficiency Rating Points, multiply a passer's yards per attempt by 8.4, add his completion percentage, add his touchdown percentage times 3.3, then subtract his interception percentage times two. 100 points is considered average.)

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKINGS

Beginning in 1936, the Associated Press polled a group of broadcasters and sports writers from around the nation, asking them to rank the various college football teams. Although other polls have come and gone, the AP's is the only one that has run in the nation's newspapers every year since 1936.

From this point forward, AP rankings for Missouri and its opponents are listed. A number in parenthesis appearing before an opponent's name indicates Missouri's ranking. A number in parenthesis appearing after an opponent's name is its ranking. "R" indicates a team was receiving votes.

'THE 5th DOWN' — A GAME TO REMEMBER; A GAME TO FORGET

One of college football's most historic games took place on Faurot Field on Oct. 6, 1990, when the eventual national champion Colorado Buffaloes pulled out a 33-31 victory, scoring the winning touchdown on what turned out to be a fifth down on the last play of the game.

With MU leading 31-27, Colorado embarked on a frantic march down the field in the final minute of play. Gaining a first down at the MU three-yard line, with 31 seconds to play, CU quarterback Charles Johnson spiked the ball to stop the clock. After regrouping, Eric Bieniemy charged up the middle to the one-yard line and Colorado called its final time out. Eighteen seconds remained.

It was here that the officials failed to notify the chain crew to flip the down marker from 2nd to 3rd down. When play resumed, Bieniemy tried to go over the top but was thrust backward by Tom Reiner, Mike Ringgenberg and Maurice Benson. The clock reached eight seconds, and officials ordered it stopped momentarily to clear the pileup.

Then, on what was fourth down, Johnson spiked the ball again. With two seconds to play, Johnson squirted over right tackle Mark VanderPoel. Hit by Reiner and Ringgenberg, he rolled over and extended the ball into the endzone and the officials signalled touchdown.

Pandemonium reigned for more than 20 minutes as those in attendance tried to determine just what had happened. But, with time expired, there was no avenue for appeal. What had appeared to be a major upset victory for the Tigers went into the record books as a bitter pill to swallow.

Colorado went on to win the Big Eight Conference championship, and with a victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, claimed a share of the national championship.

Here's how the play-by-play read of the game's final five plays:

1-G-MU 3	Charles Johnson pass incomplete
2-G-MU 3	Eric Bieniemy runs middle, gain of 2 (Tom Reiner)
3-G-MU 1	Bieniemy runs middle, no gain (Reiner, Maurice Benson)
4-G-MU 1	Johnson pass incomplete
5-G-MU 1	Johnson runs middle. TOUCHDOWN. Johnson run for PAT, no good.

Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field History

The storied history of Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field combines the best of old and new. Opened in 1926, the stadium has seen tremendous growth throughout the years, but Tiger fans are proud of the traditional feel and atmosphere the stadium lends itself to on game day.

The newest addition to the game-day atmosphere was unveiled prior to the 2009 home opener, when a high-definition video board debuted. With a video display spanning 80-feet by 31 1/2 feet, the new display gives Tiger fans some of the best HD viewing in the Midwest, to go along with an improved sound system throughout the stadium.

Among the features installed prior to the 2003 season was a state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, called FieldTurf. The project to convert the old natural grass surface (on which Mizzou played from 1995-2000) began in April of 2003 and was completed on June 26th. FieldTurf provides the reliability and consistency of artificial surfaces, but is head and shoulders above all other projects in terms of offering the look and feel, and safety of natural grass. The Tigers enjoyed great success on the surface in 2003, as Mizzou went a perfect 6-0 at Faurot Field, setting a school record for most home wins in a season.

That record has since been tied twice, as the Tigers used the home field advantage to post records of 6-1 in 2006 and 6-0 in 2007 at Faurot Field. Entering the 2010 season, the Tigers have won 24 of their last 29 there overall.

The stadium, built at a cost of $350,000, was the product of Coach Gwinn Henry's championship seasons of 1924-25, and a vision of athletic director Chester L. Brewer. It was carved out of "a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the University," chronicled Bob Broeg, longtime sports editor of the St. Louis Post-dispatch, and unofficial historian of Missouri football.

Though the seating capacity is listed at 71,004, crowds in excess of 75,000 have seen the Tigers play in Columbia—against Texas in 1979, and a record 75,298 against Penn State in 1980.

Mizzou packed in a modern-day record crowd of 71,004 on Oct. 24, 2009 against Texas – marking the largest crowd to see a game at Faurot Field since 1983.

Mizzou's average attendance for six home games in 2008 was a stout 64,520, which was the highest season average since 1980, followed by an average of 64,120 in 2009.

Coach Don Faurot's powerhouse Split "T" teams in the late '30's and '40's helped pay off the stadium bonds—along the Faurot's brave scheduling of Ohio State for nine straight years at Columbus, and big paydays from games with NYU and Fordham back east.

Peak attendance in the Tigers' single-tiered football arena was 30,832, who crammed into temporary bleachers and sat on the hillside to watch Faurot's team upset SMU, 20-14 in 1948.

A year later, the stadium underwent its first facelift with the addition of sections in the center of the west side, boosting the number of rows from 40 to 78. Those piece-meal additions continued sporadically until the summer of 1965, when the final two sections on the southeast corner were completed in the two-tired horseshoe.

The playing field adopted a new name in 1972 – Faurot Field—in honor of the legendary Mizzou football coach and athletic director whose teams and administrative leadership helped mightily to pay off the mortgage. As a matter of fact, Faurot a graduate student in 1926, helped lay the stadium's sod. He made one last symbolic contribution to the field, dropping in the last square of turf in June 1995, when Mizzou converted its previous artificial surface to natural grass. He died later than year, during Homecoming week.

The traditional block "M," carved from stone by the freshman class in 1927, guards the stadium's north endzone and gives Memorial Stadium one of the more unique landmarks around the country.

The "M," formed by whitewashed rocks, is 90-feet wide and 95-feet high. Mizzou's yearbook, the Savitar, recounted the debut of the Missouri landmark on Oct. 1, 1927, when the Tigers defeated Kansas State, 13-6:

"Five-hundred freshmen joined hands and encircled the cinder track in a single line while the bland played 'Old Missouri' in the center of the field. The pennants of all the Missouri Valley fluttered and danced above the stadium on the long line at the open end of the gridiron. A huge stone M – the work of the Frosh the night before – loomed up white and threatening against the bankment."

The "M" has weathered the good and bad times. In 1957, a group of pranksters changed the "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But, the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to his proper form before kickoff.

In 1995, Mizzou converted Faurot Field from an artificial surface known as OmniTurf (which graced the field from 1985-1994) to natural grass. The field was not the only cosmetic change made to Faurot Field in 1995. Grass-covered terraces now extend upwards from field level to the grandstands, where they meet a brick wall that adds a traditional collegiate ambiance to the stadium. The hill on the north end of the field was re-graded to provide a consistent "bowl" and is now framed by nearly 600 bushes.

Over the last 20 years, upgrades to the stadium's superstructure have been made, giving the natural bowl the tender loving care it needs to remain as the home of the Tigers for many years to come. In 1991, all of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum. Work in the stadium in 1995 also addressed accessibility issues. Seating sections and vomitories were modified to allow wheelchair access on both the east and west sides. Restrooms and concessions stands were replaced, as were the concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands in the next phase of the project, which was completed in 1997. The $12 million effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field leve in 1995, and parking lot improvements. A portion of the project was completed in 1996, installing four light towers for night games. On gamedays, the Tigers enjoy a spacious locker room, completed in 1992.

Tucked beneath the south stands is the facility which includes large and comfortable dressing quarters for players and coaches, state-of-the-art medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room which enables 50 reporters to comfortably execute their post-game duties.

Prior to the 2006 season, scoreboards were installed above the south end zone stands, complete with messaging capability that keep fans updated on key game statistics and national scores.

Faurot Field had an artificial surface once before 1985 – for its very first game in 1926. Construction of the sunken stadium seating 25,000 spectators went down to the wire in the fall of '26 with the heaviest September rainfall in 35 years contributing to the delay.

Time ran out before the playing surface could be sodded for the Oct. 2 opener with Tulane. Constant rains washed out a bridge east of Columbia, and though repaired in time, slightly more than 10,000 drenched fans showed up for the opening ceremonies.

Without sod, sawdust and tanbark were spread on the field as an alternative, and the Tigers and the Green Wave played to a "scoreless, mudpie tie," bob Broeg wrote in his two historical books on Mizzou football.

SEATING EXPANSION TIMELINE

NOTE – Capacity is listed as 71,004 due to seats available on north bowl and temporary bleacher seating.

Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field Timeline

- December, 1925 – Ground broken for future site of Memorial Stadium. It was carved out of a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the campus.

- Oct. 2, 1926 – Stadium dedicated in memory of the 112 Missouri graduates and students who died in World War I. Mizzou and Tulane played to a scoreless tie on a field that was a muddy disaster due to torrential rains that drenched the Columbia area prior to the game. The field was built with a 440-yard track encircling it.

- Oct. 1, 1927 – The landmark rock 'M' debuts at Memorial Stadium after members of the freshman class construct it with leftover rocks from the stadium project. The monument stood 90 feet wide by 95 feet high and has watched over the field ever since that day, when Mizzou defeated Kansas State, 13-7. The Tigers were a perfect 4-0 at home during the 1927 season, which helped boost MU to its third Missouri Valley Conference championship since 1924 under Coach Gwinn Henry.

- Oct. 13, 1928 – Coach Gwinn Henry's Tigers open the 1928 season by pasting visiting Centre (Ky.) College, 60-0. It remains today as Mizzou's largest margin of victory at Memorial Stadium.

- Sept. 28, 1935 – Don Faurot makes his debut as Missouri Head Coach with a 39-0 whitewashing of William Jewell College. Faurot's first Tiger squad would go on to post a 3-3-3 record.

- Nov. 5, 1938 – Missouri blanks visiting Michigan State, 6-0. The win started a 20-game winning streak for the Tigers at Memorial Stadium, a record that still stands today. Mizzou would not lose at home again until a 20-13 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 13, 1943.

- Nov. 4, 1939 – Unranked Missouri defeats 10th-ranked Nebraska, 27-13, at Memorial Stadium to mark MU's first-ever win over a ranked team. Two weeks later, the Tigers, now ranked 12th, upset 5th-ranked Oklahoma, 7-6, at Memorial Stadium, and went on to win the Big Six title – the first of three league championships to be won under Faurot from 1939-42.

- Oct. 9, 1948 – One of the biggest upsets in Memorial Stadium history occurs, as the unranked Tigers ambush 4th-ranked SMU, 20-14.

- Summer, 1949 – Stadium undergoes first expansion as 5,000 seats are added to the center section of west stands, increasing the number of rows from 40 to 78. Also built was a new press box that included seating for 50 writers and featured eight radio booths.

- Dec. 1, 1956 – Don Faurot is carried off the field on the shoulders of his players after his Tigers post a stirring last-minute 15-13 win over rival Kansas in Faurot's final game as a coach.

- Oct. 25, 1957 – A group of pranksters changed the rock "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to its proper form before kickoff. The next day, Missouri used a last-minute touchdown to post a come-from-behind 14-13 win over the Huskers.

- Sept. 20, 1958 – Coach Dan Devine, the third Tiger coach in three years, makes his Missouri debut against Vanderbilt, but the visiting Commodores spoil the day by leaving Columbia with a 12-8 victory.

- Nov. 19, 1960 – One of the more infamous events in the history of Memorial Stadium took place, as the #1-ranked and undefeated Tigers were upset, 23-7, in the regular-season finale by unranked rival Kansas. The loss spoiled any national championship hopes for the Tigers, who would go on to beat Navy in the Orange Bowl and finish ranked as high as 4th in the UPI poll. It was later discovered that Kansas had used an ineligible player, and the game was officially forfeited by the Jayhawks, giving Mizzou a bittersweet administrative victory.

- Summer, 1965 – Final expansion of original horseshoe completed on southeast corner that added 3,595 seats bringing capacity at the time to 44,344 permanent seats.
- 1968 – New press box and VIP lounge constructed by private subscription.
- Nov. 21, 1970 – Dan Devine coaches his last game at Mizzou, and fittingly, goes out a winner against Kansas, 28-17.
- 1972 – Playing surface named Faurot Field in honor of legendary coach and athletic director Don Faurot.
- Oct. 28, 1972 – Coach Al Onofrio's unranked Tigers upset #7 Colorado, 20-17. Five more times over the next four years, Onofrio's squads would upset ranked teams on the newly christened Faurot Field.
- Oct. 13, 1973 – Mizzou got one of its biggest wins ever at Memorial Stadium/ Faurot Field when the 12th-ranked Tigers defeated #2 Nebraska, 13-12 when a last-minute Husker two-point conversion pass was intercepted by MU's Tony Gillick. Nebraska had beaten Mizzou by a combined score of 98-0 the two previous years. It remains as the highest-ranked foe any Tiger team has ever beaten.
- Summer, 1978 – South endzone was enclosed with 10,800 permanent seats.
- Oct. 4, 1980 – Largest crowd to ever see a game at Faurot Field witnesses a 29-21 upset win by 19th-ranked Penn State over 7th-ranked Mizzou. A record crowd of 75,298 saw the game.
- Oct. 15, 1983 – Musco Mobile Lighting brings in portable lights to illuminate a mid-afternoon game vs. Nebraska. Mizzou's defense holds Nebraska's "Scoring Explosion" offense somewhat in check, but still falls to the top-ranked Huskers, 34-13.
- Summer, 1984 – Glass-enclosed Tiger Lounge constructed in lower level of press box facility.
- May 18, 1985 – Project began to convert Faurot Field natural grass surface to new artificial surface called Omniturf. Project was completed on Aug. 30th.
- Sept. 14, 1985 – First game on Omniturf is an ominous 27-23 loss to Northwestern. Mizzou would finish the year 0-7 at home this season, with five of the games decided by a touchdown or less.
- Oct. 11, 1986 – Kicker Tom Whelihan kicks school-record 62-yard field goal in a 17-12 loss to Colorado.
- Oct. 6, 1990 – 12th-ranked Colorado escapes Faurot Field with a 33-31 win over Mizzou after benefiting from an officiating oversight that gave the Buffaloes five downs to score the winning TD on 5th-and-goal in the closing seconds. The "Fifth Down Game" helped propel the Buffaloes to a share of the national title that year.
- Summer, 1991 – All of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum.
- June 1, 1992 – Big Eight Conference coaches approve a statement that read, in part: "Big Eight Conference football coaches wanted to report that the football field at the University of Missouri is a detriment to the home and visiting teams and takes away from the integrity of the game played on such a field."
- Summer, 1992 – Facilities completed underneath south stands that give the Tigers a spacious game-day locker room, improved medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room with enables 65 reporters to comfortably execute post-game duties.

Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field Timeline

- Oct. 8, 1992 – Musco brings in portable lights to illuminate the first-ever night game at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field vs. Colorado. In brutally cold and wet weather, the 9th-ranked Buffaloes escape with a 6-0 win.

- Nov. 11, 1992 – Coach Bob Stull's Tigers close the 1992 season out with a 22-17 upset win over 22nd-ranked Kansas. Kicker Jeff Jacke set an MU single-game record by making five field goals in the game.

- Sept. 18, 1994 – Rock and Roll legends The Rolling Stones, perform an open-air concert at Memorial Stadium before 45,000 fans. The concert helped provide nearly $100,000 toward the eventual project that converted the Omniturf surface to natural grass the next year.

- Nov. 19, 1994 – Mizzou loses its home finale to Kansas, 31-14. The game would mark the last played on the now infamous Omniturf surface. In its 10 seasons on the surface, Mizzou's record was just 20-38-3.

- June, 1995 – Project begins to convert Faurot Field from Omniturf back to natural grass. The grass, a blend of five Kentucky bluegrass varieties, was donated for the project by Gene Sandner and Darrell Seltsam of S&S Seed Farms/Evergreen Sod in Rocheport, Mo. Legendary Coach Don Faurot, who helped lay sod for the original field in 1926 at Memorial Stadium, put down the last piece of sod to finalize the newest version as a symbolic gesture. Faurot later died in October of that year, during Homecoming Week.

- June, 1995 – Grass-covered terraces were extended upward from field level to the grandstands, where they met a new brick wall, to give the stadium a traditional collegiate ambiance. The red brick eventually became a central unifying theme throughout the Sports Park at MU the evolved in the years to follow.

- Sept. 2, 1995 – Mizzou defeats North Texas, 28-7, on first game back on natural grass at Memorial Stadium.

- Summer, 1996 – Four light towers were permanently installed, giving Missouri the opportunity to play night games on a regular basis.

- Sept. 14, 1996 – First-ever night game at Faurot Field with permanent light system goes awry, as Memphis leaves with a 19-16 upset win over the Tigers.

- Oct. 26, 1996 – The first overtime game in Mizzou history results in a 35-28 Tiger Homecoming win over Oklahoma State.

- Summer, 1997 — $12 million renovation of Faurot Field was completed that replaced restrooms, concession stands and concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands. The effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field level in 1995, and parking lot improvements. Diamond Vision video replay scoreboard is installed as part of this project above the rock 'M', with a screen measuring 21-feet tall by 27-feet wide.

- Nov. 8, 1997 – Top-ranked Nebraska escaped Faurot Field with a 45-38 overtime win after a miracle TD on a 4th down in the closing seconds of regulation forced the extra period. The win helped propel Nebraska to a share of the national championship that year. The Huskers' miracle TD took place in the same North end zone where Colorado scored to win seven years earlier in the "5th-Down Game," prompting MU fans to believe there is a curse of sorts in the North end zone.

- Sept. 12, 1998 – Senior tailback Devin West rushes for a school-record 319 yards on 33 carries in leading the 25th-ranked Tigers to a 41-23 win over rival Kansas.

- April, 2003 – Faurot Field sod torn up to make way for switch to artificial surface and salvageable amounts given free to Tiger fans.

- June 25, 2003 – FieldTurf installation project is completed.

- Sept. 13, 2003 – The first game ever on FieldTurf is a success, as Mizzou crushes Eastern Illinois, 37-0, giving the Tigers their first shutout win since 1998.

- Oct. 11, 2003 – Mizzou, stinging from its previous game, an unexpected 35-14 loss at Kansas, rebounds to earn one of the biggest wins in recent memory, as the Tigers upset 10th-ranked Nebraska, 41-24 on a wet night that was televised nationally by TBS. The win, which came before a sellout crowd of 68,349, broke a 25-game Husker winning streak over MU, and it marked Mizzou's first win in Columbia over Nebraska since 1973.

- Oct. 25, 2003 – Mizzou becomes bowl eligible by getting its sixth win of the season in fine fashion, as they outdistanced Texas Tech and their Heisman Trophy candidate quarterback B.J. Symons, 62-31. Mizzou's QB extraordinaire Brad Smith broke a school record by scoring five touchdowns, as he rushed for 291 yards.

- Nov. 29, 2003 – On the Saturday of Thanksgiving week, Mizzou closed out a perfect 6-0 home record with a 45-7 win over Iowa State to earn its eighth win of the year. Senior tailback Zack Abron became MU's all-time rushing leader on a first quarter run.

- Sept. 10, 2005 – In a 45-35 loss to New Mexico, senior quarterback Brad Smith became Mizzou's career rushing AND passing leader on consecutive drives in the 3rd quarter of the game.

- Nov. 12, 2005 – Record-setting quarterback Brad Smith closed out his Faurot Field career by leading Mizzou to a hardfought 31-16 win over Baylor. Smith, who would end his career holding as many as 69 different MU, Big 12 and NCAA game, season and career records, closed his brilliant home career by rushing for 161 yards and 3 TDs.

- Sept. 2, 2006 – Sophomore QB Chase Daniel makes his first career start, and promptly breaks the MU single-game passing touchdown record by throwing five scoring strikes in the 2006 season opener against Murray State.

- Oct. 6, 2007 – The 17th-ranked Tigers blitzed 25th-ranked Nebraska, 41-6 before a modern-day record crowd of 70,049. The win was MU's most lopsided over Nebraska since 1947, and Chase Daniel's 473 all-purpose yards was only 7 shy of the MU record of 480 set by Brad Smith in 2005, also against Nebraska.

- Spring, 2009 – Work began on a new video board display to replace the aging board located on the top of the grass hill beyond the north endzone. The project was completed prior to MU's 2009 home opener on Sept. 12 against Bowling Green.

Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium Trivia

- Legend has it that during initial blasting done for the building of the stadium, a rock crusher and truck were buried, and still today, they reside buried under the field.

- Original plans called for the stadium to seat 25,000, with proposed stages of expansion to 35,000, 55,000, 75,000 and 98,875.

- In 1974, Athletic Director Mel Sheehan studied the possibility of lowering the field and adding seats on each side closer to the sidelines, but the plans were scratched due to a prevalence of bedrock just below the surface.

Five Straight Bowl Games – A Mizzou Record

#23 JOHNNY ROLAND

Johnny Roland undoubtedly was the biggest recruiting catch by Dan Devine during his 13 years as football coach at the University of Missouri.

Roland, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Ol' Mizzou's leading rusher and scorer as a sophomore in 1962 with 830 yards and 78 points, respectively. However, he specialized primarily as a defensive back in his junior and senior seasons.

Capping MU's 1965 Sugar Bowl season, Roland was a consensus first-team all-American on defense. Yet, Devine utilized the 6-2, 207-pound athlete's talents to the fullest — often inserting Roland as a ball-carrier and a blocking back whenever the Tigers penetrated their opponent's 20-yard line. He also returned punts.

Roland shared the captaincy of the '65 team and became Mizzou's first back to win all-America laurels in 23 years. He went on to win NFL Rookie-of-the-Year with the St. Louis Cardinals, and went on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

#23 ROGER WEHRLI

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career.

Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes.

A consensus all-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial all-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004, and later was also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

#27 BROCK OLIVO

Brock Olivo came to Mizzou with modest fanfare, but thanks to his legendary work ethic, he became one of the great inspirational players in school history.

A native of Washington, Mo., Olivo helped restore pride to his home state program that had fallen on hard times when he led the Tigers to the 1997 Holiday Bowl – MU's first bowl appearance since 1983.

Olivo made his mark at tailback and on special teams during a career that spanned from 1994-97. He left as the school's all-time leading career rusher, with 3,026 yards, and his 188 points ranked him fourth on the career scoring list. Olivo became the first Tiger to rush for 200 yards in a game twice, doing so during his sophomore season with a 222-yard outing against Northeast Louisiana and following with a 201-yard day against Iowa State later in the year.

The Big Eight Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year in 1994, Olivo went on to ensure his spot in Tiger Football history when he won the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1997 – making him the first Tiger to ever win a national individual award.

#37 BOB STEUBER

More than 50 years after hanging up his competitive cleats at Missouri, Bob Steuber still ranks as the Tigers' ninth-best ground-gainer of all time.

Steuber was the big, fast back — a 210-pounder who could turn the 100 in 10-flat — who made Don Faurot's new-fangled Split-T formation such a rousing success in 1941 and '42. Switched from end to halfback as a junior and finished as the nation's number-three rusher in 1941, and the rushing runner-up in 1942. His career total was 2,030 yards, which stood as the Mizzou record for 28 years, until surpassed by Joe Moore in 1970.

He still holds Missouri records for highest average per carry in a game (15.8) and highest average per carry in a season (7.6). His record of most career points (222) stood until 1992.

All-America in 1942, Steuber was drafted by the Chicago Bears, but entered the service, and later played professionally with the Cleveland Browns, L.A. Dons and Buffalo Bills.

#42 DAROLD JENKINS

A center-linebacker for Don Faurot's 1940 and '41 Tiger teams, Darold Jenkins was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1976. He captained the '41 Tiger club that was considered to be the best of Faurot's 19 Missouri teams, and went to the Sugar Bowl.

A native of Higginsville, Mo., Jenkins was named to 17 all-America teams in 1941. He later was a bomber pilot in World War II, and on his 27th mission was shot down. He spent 17 months in a German POW camp.

After discharge from the service, he served as trial counsel for the State Highway Commission. He died in 1986.

#44 PAUL CHRISTMAN

"Pitchin" Paul Christman set virtually all of the passing records at Mizzou, most of which stood intact for nearly 40 years.

Christman won all-America honors in 1939 and '40 and was MU's first player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He is the only Mizzou player (until 2007) to finish among the top-five in Heisman Trophy voting, as he finished third in 1939 and fifth in 1940.

Following his career, during which he led the Tigers to their first conference championship and bowl appearance under Don Faurot, Christman served in the U.S. Navy from 1941-45.

He played four years of pro football with the Chicago Cardinals ('46-49) and finished with the Green Bay Packers in 1950. He was an accomplished network television analyst and commentator, teaming with Curt Gowdy on early AFL telecasts. A native of St. Louis, he died suddenly at the age of 51, in 1970.

#83 KELLEN WINSLOW

An All-American on and off the field, Kellen Winslow may be the greatest tight end ever to play the game. At MU, he was a two-time all-league choice and a consensus all-American as a senior. But the 28 passes he caught for 479 yards and six TDs in 1978 were just the tip of the iceberg.

During a nine-year career with San Diego, Winslow starred with Dan Fouts and Charlie Joiner in the most prolific passing attack ever unleashed on NFL gridirons. He caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and scored 45 TDs.

He's best remembered for a '81 playoff game against the Miami Dolphins, when he caught 13 passes and blocked a FG with :04 remaining to send the game into OT. San Diego went on to win, 41-38.

Winslow was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1995, and was a 2003 inductee into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, and was honored in 2004 as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Winner. An attorney, Winslow previously worked as part of the Mizzou Radio team, and is now the athletic director at Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio.

Missouri has had 30 first-team all-Americans, 10 of whom have been consensus choices— center Darold Jenkins ('41), end Danny LaRose ('60), defensive back Johnny Roland ('65), defensive back Roger Wehrli ('68), tight end Kellen Winslow ('78), offensive tackle John Clay ('86), center Rob Riti ('99), tight end Martin Rucker (2007), all-purpose man Jeremy Maclin (2007 and 2008) and tight end Chase Coffman (2008).

1925 Ed Lindenmeyer, T

Mizzou's very first All-American, as he won the designation for the 1925 season. A native of Lake Forest, Ill., Lindenmeyer came to Mizzou and starred at both tackle and end, lettering in 1924-25-26. He earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1925, and blocked a punt for a safety in a 9-6 upset win over Nebraska that season. Lindenmeyer lettered on Gwinn Henry's teams that had a stellar three-year record of 18-4-3. He later went on to coach at Lake Forest (Ill.) College.

1939 Paul Christman, QB

The legendary "Pitchin Paul" Christman came to Mizzou from Maplewood, Mo., and lettered in football in 1938-39-40, and in baseball in 1938-39-41. He was a three-time All-Big Six Conference quarterback, and twice won All-America honors. Christman finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1939, and fifth in 1940. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Chicago Cardinals (1945-49) and Green Bay Packers (1950), and led the Cardinals to division titles in 1947-48 and the league championship in 1947. He still ranks seventh in MU history with 3,882 yards of total offense, and ninth with 2,895 passing yards. In 1940, he led the nation with 1,131 yards passing and 13 TD passes. During his career, MU had a 20-8 record, with a Big Six title in '39, and its first bonafide bowl game – the 1940 Orange Bowl. The first Tiger player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (in 1956), his jersey (44) number is retired.

1941 Darold Jenkins, C

A faultless ball-handler, Missouri's Darold Jenkins was a mid- line magician during the early 1940s. He played the unheralded role of center, making coach Don Faurot's split-T formation click through a 22-7 record. On defense he played middle linebacker. In 1941, Jenkins captained the Tigers and led them to one of their most exciting seasons. They lost to Ohio State, 12-7, in the season opener, then ran off eight victories before bowing to Fordham, 2-0, in the Sugar Bowl. Missouri won the Big Six Championship that year and Jenkins was named All-Conference and All-America. Jenkins was the leading center of his day and Faurot considered him a "play- maker" because of his ability to get the offense moving. After college, Jenkins served six years in the U.S. Army Air Corps logging 27 combat missions over Germany. He spent 16 months as a prisoner of war. When he retired from the military, Jenkins held the rank of lieutenant colonel. He returned to study law and, in 1952, became a practicing attorney, eventually joining the Missouri State Highway Commission. He died September 16, 1986.

1942 Bob Steuber, HB

A star halfback out of CBC High School in St. Louis, Mo., Steuber lettered at MU in 1940-41-42. He was a two-time All-Big Six selection, who won All-America honors in 1942, and is one of seven Tigers to have his jersey (37) retired. He still holds the MU single-season scoring record (121 points in 1942) and ranks fourth in career scoring and 10th in rushing yards in school history. His 2,030 rushing yards stood as the MU record for 28 years. He posted MU's first 1,000-yard rushing campaign in 1942, ranking second in the nation with 1,098 yards. When MU led the nation in rushing in 1941, he was third in the nation with 855 yards. Steuber played in the East-West Shrine and College All-Star Games following graduation, then played professionally with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Los Angeles Dons and Buffalo Bills. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1971.

1955 Harold Burnine, E

An All-America receiver for Coach Don Faurot in 1955, when he led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 594 yards. He led the conference in receiving in 1954, as well. The native of Richmond, Mo., was also All-Big Seven that year, and played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray, North-South, Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. For his three-year MU career, Burnine caught 75 passes for 1,145 yards, figures that kept him in the Tiger top-10 until the l990s. He played professionally with the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles. Burnine was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

1960 Danny LaRose, E

One of the greatest two-way talents in Missouri history, LaRose starred from 1958-60, as an end who could dominate the line of scrimmage, and was also MU's leading receiver as a sophomore and senior. He also punted for MU in 1960. A native of Crystal City, Mo., LaRose won all-conference honors in 1958 and '60, and was a consensus All-America selection in 1960 (making 13 teams), when Missouri beat Navy and Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino in the Orange Bowl. LaRose played in the College All-Star Game and Hula Bowl in 1961, then went on to a professional career with the Detroit Lions, Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins. He was also an accomplished Weightman in track, who held Missouri's indoor shot put record for many years.

1961 Ed Blaine, T

One of the greatest offensive linemen in Missouri history, Blaine lettered as a Tiger in 1959-60-61. He received All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1961, and was an honorable mention selection on the Missouri All-Century Team. A native of Farmington, Mo., Blaine played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Senior Bowl and the College All-Star Game, after his senior season, on the way to a career in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (1962-63) and Philadelphia Eagles (1963-66). In his post-playing days, Blaine established himself as one of the nation's foremost pharmaceutical researchers, and has spoken at Mizzou's commencement exercises.

1962 Conrad Hitchler, E

A standout two-way end for Coach Dan Devine, who lettered at Mizzou from 1960-62. Hitchler led Mizzou in receiving in 1961, and was an All-Big Eight selection in both 1961 and '62. He earned All-America status as a senior, then went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Coaches All-America Game. He played three years in the Canadian Football League as a member of the Calgary Stampeders. His son, Conrad Goode, was also an All-American offensive tackle for the Tigers in 1983.

1965 Johnny Roland, DB

Johnny Roland's career at Missouri had two dimensions. As a sophomore in 1962 he was a running back. He rushed for 830 yards, seventh best total in the nation, and scored 78 points, ninth in the nation. He rushed for 155 yards against Oklahoma State, 104 against Iowa State. When he returned for his junior year in 1964, Coach Dan Devine moved him to defensive back. He made All-America at this position in 1965. Roland stood 6-2, weighed 198, and was a power runner. Even in the years he was a defensive back, Devine occasionally moved him into the game on offense. He always picked times when Missouri had the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In 1965 Roland also returned 42 punts and kickoffs for 690 yards, averaging 16.4 yards on each. He was Missouri's co-captain in 1965, and helped the team to an 8-2-1 record, including a 20-18 victory over Florida in the 1966 Sugar Bowl. Missouri retired his jersey, No. 23, and he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1998. He made All-Big Eight as a runner in 1962 and as a defensive back in 1964 and 1965. In 1965 he had six pass interceptions. He had an 8-year playing career in the pros with St. Louis and the New York Giants, winning NFL Rookie-of-the-Year honors with the Cardinals. He has gone on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL, and is currently with the Arizona Cardinals.

1965 Francis Peay, OT

A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Peay was a standout tackle at Mizzou in 1964-65, and won All-Big Eight and All-America honors as a senior when Missouri ranked third in the nation in rushing offense and won the Sugar Bowl over Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. He was the Big Eight's lineman of the week following MU's 17-6 win over Minnesota that season, and later played in the Senior Bowl, Coaches All-American Game and College All-Star Game. He was a first-round choice of the New York Giants in the 1966 NFL Draft, and later played with the Green Bay Packers (1968-72) and Kansas City Chiefs (1973-75). Named to the Missouri All-Century Team, he was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1967 Russ Washington, OT

One of the most dominant linemen in MU history, Russ Washington was the Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-American in 1967. He was twice named All-Big Eight and played in four all-star games following his senior season. Washington starred in the NFL for the San Diego Chargers from 1968-83, and had two brothers, Wayne and David, who later played on the offensive line for Mizzou.

1968 Roger Wehrli, DB

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career. Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes. A consensus all-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial all-Pro selection. Wehrli will be enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

1969 Mike Carroll, OG

A powerful blocker who was selected a first-team All-American offensive lineman as a senior after helping lead Missouri to the 1970 Orange Bowl. That Tiger squad featured on of the nation's most high-powered offensive attacks, and the team finished the 1969 season as the Big Eight Conference Co-Champions with a 9-2 record and No. 6 national ranking. The 1969 team set school records at the time for points per game (36.2), total yards (4,507), passing yards (2,048) and touchdown passes (20). Carroll helped pave the way for running back Joe Moore to gain 1,312 yards rushing (3rd in the nation) and for quarterback Terry McMillan to rank 12th nationally in 1969 with 2,157 total yards. The Ste. Genevieve, Mo., native, played in the prestigious Senior Bowl following his senior season.

1973 Scott Anderson, C

A standout center on Missouri teams that played in the 1972 Fiesta and 1973 Sun Bowls, Anderson lettered for Coach Al Onofrio from 1971-73. An All-Big Eight and All-America selection as a senior in 1973, Anderson played in the Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American all-star games in 1974. He recovered a fumble that set up a touchdown that led to MU's 13-12 victory over Nebraska in Columbia in 1973. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Minnesota Vikings from 1974-77.

1973 John Moseley, DB

One of the most exciting players ever to play at MU, Moseley holds the distinction of being the only MU football player ever to go from walk-on to All-American. A defensive back from 1971-73, Moseley was a daring kick return man. He ranked sixth in the nation in punt returns in 1973, with an average of 16.5 yards per return. For his career, he averaged 13.3 yards, which stood as the school record until recently. The Columbia, Mo., native was named All-American as a senior in 1973.

1975 Henry Marshall, WR

One of Mizzou's greatest receivers, Henry Marshall was an All-Big Eight and All-America choice in 1975, when he caught 44 passes for 945 yards and nine touchdowns. A native of Salina, Kan., he was a tight end when he lettered as a freshman in 1972, but moved to wideout while lettering in 1974 and '75. He played in the Blue-Gray Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Game following his senior year, then was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs, for whom he played from 1976-87, and in the process, unseated Otis Taylor as Kansas City's alltime leading receiver. He held the MU records for receiving yards in a game (207) and season (945) for 15 years, before both were eventually broken. A first-team choice on the Missouri All-Century Team, Marshall was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1976 Morris Towns, OT

Earned first-team All-American honors as a senior tackle in 1976, a year that saw Mizzou pull huge upset wins on the road against four top-15 teams: No. 2 Ohio State, No. 3 Nebraska, No. 8 USC and No. 14 Colorado. Was known as being equally adept at providing crushing run blocks as he was providing excellent pass protection. A St. Louis, Mo., native who was a three-year starter for the Tigers. He won first-team All-Big Eight honors as a senior, and went on to play in prestigious college all-star games such as the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl, and the Japan Bowl. He went on to become the 11th overall pick of the 1977 NFL Draft, to the Houston Oilers, and enjoyed a fine nine-year professional career, playing with the Oilers for six years, and the Washington Redskins for three more.

1978 Kellen Winslow, TE

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Kellen Winslow redefined the tight end position at the collegiate and professional levels during his playing career. Before Winslow, most tight ends ran short- to medium-length pass patterns. Kellen was one of the first tight ends to run deeper routes due to his unique combination of size and speed. As a freshman, he only played in three games and caught one pass. The next year new coach Warren Powers installed an expanded passing offense in which Winslow and the Tigers flourished. That year Mizzou upset Notre Dame and Nebraska, two teams which were rated among the nation's top five teams, while Winslow's number of catches improved to 16. In his junior year, he won the first of back-to-back All-Conference selections. As a senior, he added Consensus All-America honors to his list of accomplishments. Winslow went on to have a Pro Football Hall of Fame career in nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, where he caught 541 passes for 6.741 yards and nine touchdowns. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2003.

1980 Bill Whitaker, DB

A ballhawking defensive back who had a nose for big plays in the secondary. Earned first-team All-American honors as a senior in 1980 after leading the Big Eight Conference with six interceptions, including three in a single game against San Diego State. Oddly enough, he also had three pass interceptions as a junior in a game versus San Diego State. His 14 career interceptions tied him for the MU career record at the time of his graduation, and still ranks second on the school charts. Also served double duty as a punt returner, and was MU's top return man in 1980, as the Tigers went 8-4 and played in the Liberty Bowl. Went on to become a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in the 1981 NFL Draft, and played six years in the league, three each with the Packers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

1981 Brad Edelman, C

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Brad Edelman lettered as a standout center at Mizzou from 1978-81, and played on MU teams that appeared in four bowl games (1978 Liberty, 1979 Hall of Fame, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). He earned All-American status in as a senior co-captain in 1981, in addition to earning All-Big Eight honors as a junior in 1980. A member of the Missouri All-Century Team, Edelman played in the Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl all-star games following the 1981 season. He went on to a solid professional football career, playing in the National Football League with the New Orleans Saints from 1982-90 as an offensive guard. He was a Pro-Bowl starter in 1987, and was a Pro-Bowl alternate in 1982-83-84-88. Edelman worked as an actor in Hollywood for a period of time after finishing his pro football career.

1981 Jeff Gaylord, DT

A rugged defender who hailed from Overland Park, Kan., and lettered three years for Mizzou (1978-80-81), playing on MU teams that went to bowl games each year (1978 Liberty, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). Won Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors as a senior in 1981, making him to this day the only Tiger to win a conference defensive player of the year award. Was named All-Big Eight in 1981, and earned player of the game honors in MU's 1981 Tangerine Bowl victory over Southern Mississippi. Following his senior season, Gaylord played in the Blue-Gray Game, East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. He played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams, Toronto Argonauts and in the USFL, from 1982-85. He also was a professional wrestler for several years following his retirement from football.

1983 Conrad Goode, OT

An offensive tackle with good Tiger bloodlines, whose father, Conrad Hitchler, was an All-American end at MU in 1962. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Goode lettered at MU from 1980-83 and played on Missouri teams that appeared in three bowl games (1980 Liberty, 1981 Tangerine, 1983 Holiday). As a senior co-captain, earned All-American honors, in addition to being named All-Big Eight Conference. He played in the prestigious East-West Shrine all-star game following his senior season, and went on to play in the National Football League with the New York Giants (1984-85) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-89). Following his football playing days, became a successful actor in Hollywood, where he still works today.

1986 John Clay, OT

An earth-moving offensive tackle, John Clay was a St. Louis, Mo. native who earned consensus All-American honors as a senior in 1986. He lettered four years for Mizzou, from 1983-86, and was a first-team All-Big Eight selection in 1984-85-86, joining former standouts Johnny Roland, Gary Lane and Phil Bradley as MU's only three-time all-league honorees in the Big Eight era. A team co-captain in 1986, Clay ended his collegiate career by playing in the prestigious Blue-Gray Game and East-West Shrine Game. He went on to become a first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders of the National Football League in 1987. He was later traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1988, but a back injury prematurely ended his promising career.

1998 Devin West, TB

He might have come to Mizzou from nearby Moberly, Mo., without much fanfare, but Devin West became one of the top running backs in school history before his playing days were done. Lettering for four years (1995-98), West ended his career as MU's No. 2 alltime career rusher, with 2,954 yards, and now stands number three. He would rank as MU's alltime leader if bowl games were counted in career totals during his day. Still holds MU record for all-purpose yardage in a career (3,824), season (1,621 in 1998) and game (333 vs. Kansas in 1998). Was a first-team All-American running back (MU's first since Bob Steuber in 1942) as a senior in 1998, who helped lead Mizzou to an 8-4 season and a win over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl – MU's first bowl win since 1981. He rushed for 125 yards in the game. Rushed for an MU single-season record 1,578 yards in 1998, which ranked him fifth in the nation. Included in that total was a dominant 319-yard, two-touchdown rushing day against arch rival Kansas for Homecoming in 1998. Played in the Senior Bowl following the 1998 season, and was a semi-finalist for the prestigious Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top running back.

1999 Rob Riti, C

One of the best centers to ever play the game for Mizzou, Riti won first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1999, and became one of only seven Tigers to earn consensus All-American first-team honors. He was a key figure in MU rushing attacks that ranked among the nation's top-10 statistically three times. Started an MU-record 44 consecutive games from 1996-99, and helped pave the way for tailback Devin West to an All-American year in 1998 as the Tigers won their first bowl game since 1981, with a victory over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl. Was one of the strongest Tigers to ever don the Black and Gold, as he was the first MU player to record a 900-lb. squat lift in 1998, then topped that with a school-record 1,000-lb. lift in 1999.

2000 Justin Smith, DE

A first-team All-American as a junior who was virtually unstoppable, despite constant double and even triple-teaming efforts by Tiger opponents. A fierce competitor with a tireless motor who left holding the MU career quarterback sack record, with 22.5 in just three years. Broke the MU single-season sack record in his junior year, recording 11 on his own. A native of Holts Summit, Mo., Smith declared for the NFL Draft after his stellar junior season, and became the fourth overall pick of the 2001 NFL Draft, by the Cincinnati Bengals, who he led in sacks each of his first two seasons in the league. Made an instant impression, as he became the first true freshman to start every game since 1986, when he started all 12 contests in 1998. Was a key factor for MU's defense that year that saw the Tigers earn their first bowl win since 1981, as they defeated West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl.

2007 Martin Rucker, TE

The top pass-catching tight end in Mizzou hsitory, Rucker won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors as a senior in 2007 when he caught 84 passes for 834 yards and eight touchdowns in helping lead Mizzou to a 12-2 season and its first-ever Big 12 North Division title and a final No. 4 Associated Press ranking. Rucker was a vital part of the rebuilding of the Tiger program, and served as a leader and visual aid of the hard work and dedication to the program that needed to take shape to get the program back in the national scene. Rucker ended his Tiger career with an MU-record 203 receptions, 2,175 yards and 18 TDs, as he started in an MU-record 50 consecutive games from 2004-07. His 84 catches in 2007 broke the MU single-season record, as well.

2007, 2008 Jeremy Maclin, All-Purpose

After missing the 2006 season due to a knee injury, redshirt freshman Jeremy Maclin burst onto the scene in record-setting fashion, and became MU's first-ever freshman to earn 1st-Team All-American honors in 2007. He earned consensus 1st-Team status by breaking the NCAA single-season freshman record for all-purpose yards, as he amassed a whopping 2,776 yards – including 1,055 receiving, 1,039 kickoff return, 375 rushing and 307 punt return. Maclin scored 16 touchdowns in all to become one of the most dynamic players in all of college football, with nine scores coming on receptions, four on the ground, two in punt returns and one on a kickoff return – the latter was an historic 99-yard kickoff return for score at Kansas State that was MU's first since 1982. He was the only player in Division I in 2007 to score touchdowns in all four all-purpose categories. He repeated with consensus 1st-Team All-American honors in 2008 as he led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage (202.36 ypg) and broke MU single-season receiving records with 102 receptions, 1,260 yards and 13 TDs. In just two years, he broke the MU record for career all-purpose yardage, with 5,609 yards. He closed his career with Offensive MVP honors in the 2008 Alamo Bowl, as he returned a punt for TD and caught the game-winning TD pass from Chase Daniel in MU's 30-23 overtime win. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of collegiate eligibility and entered the 2009 NFL Draft, where he was taken with the #19 overall selection in the first round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

2008 Chase Coffman, TE

Despite missing two games late in the year with a foot injury, Coffman established himself as the top tight end in all of college football, and won consensus 1st-Team All-American honors, marking the second straight year MU tight ends earned that distinction. Coffman surpassed former teammate Martin Rucker as MU's top pass-catching tight end of all time, as he had 90 receptions in 2008 for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns. His play in 2008 not only earned him All-American honors, but won him the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to the top tight end in the nation. That made Coffman the first Tiger in history to win a national individual award given to a specific position group. Coffman ended his career holding Mizzou records for receptions (247) and touchdowns (30), and was second alltime in receiving yards (2,659). He went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2009 NFL Draft.

2009 Danario Alexander, WR

Overcoming huge odds against him, Danario Alexander turned in a record-smashing senior season in 2009 to become the nation's leading receiver, and took home All-American honors in the process. Coming into his senior year, Alexander hadn't even earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 status, thanks mostly to the fact that his first three years were impacted by a string of unfortunate knee injuries. He was resolute in his determination to prove he belonged among the nation's elite receivers, and he did just that in 2009, as he burst onto the scene with an NCAA-best 137.0 yards per game average, which included an MU-record 1,781 yards, 14 touchdowns and 113 receptions. His yardage total was some 500 yards more than the previous record of 1,260 established in 2008 by Jeremy Maclin (in one fewer game, nonetheless), and it propelled Alexander to the top of the Mizzou career receiving yardage charts, with 2,778 (previous record was 2,704 by Justin Gage). He became only the fifth Tiger in history to lead the NCAA in an individual statistical category, and the first receiver since Hank Burnine led the country in 1955 with 44 receptions. Alexander had an MU-record nine 100-yard receiving games, including six straight to close the season. Included in that string were three 200-yard performances in a four-game stretch (214 vs. Baylor, 200 at Kansas State, 173 vs. Iowa State and 233 vs. Kansas). For his career, Alexander finished with 191 receptions for 2,778 yards and 22 touchdowns.

2009 Grant Ressel, PK

One of the more amazing stories to come out of college football during the 2009 season had to do with the previously unheralded sophomore walk-on kicker Grant Ressel, who rose from unknown status to become one of the nation's top kickers. Ressel began fall camp second on the depth chart as the Tigers looked to replace Jeff Wolfert, who left after the 2008 holding the NCAA career record for combined kick accuracy. With those rather large shoes to fill, Ressel was named the starting kicker the week of the 2009 season opener, and proceeded to put together an amazing season which earned him All-American status. All he did was set an NCAA single-season combined kick accuracy record, as he connected on a combined 98.5% (65-of-66) of his kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 on extra points. He also led the NCAA in field goal percentage among those with 13 or more attempts (96.3%) and finished third nationally with 2.00 field goals made per game. Also etched his name firmly forever into the hearts of Tiger fans young and old, thanks to his game-winning 27-yard field goal as time expired to beat rival Kansas, 41-39, in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium to end the regular season and give Mizzou its eighth win of the year.

Mizzou Coaching Legend Don Faurot

Don Faurot is widely recognized as the man who had the greatest impact on intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

Faurot's association with MU started when he was a young boy who'd sneak into old Rollins Field to watch the football Tigers play and practice. Later, he was a three-sport letterman at Missouri from 1922-24.

But it was as football coach and director of athletics that Faurot left his legacy on the University, and the sport. Even when he terminated his employment with the MU Athletic Department nearly 40 years ago, he never really found a way to retire, maintaining an office at the Tom Taylor Building where he spent several hours nearly every day. He was a regular attendee at football practice until his passing in 1995.

Faurot served as football coach from 1935 through 1956 — with three years out for Navy service during World War II. Aside from leading the Tigers out of debt and into football's big time, Faurot's tenure as football coach and director of athletics — a job he relinquished in 1967 — left MU athletics with its greatest legacy, the imprint of his integrity.

His prime contribution to football was his innovation of the Split-T formation at Mizzou in 1941. In the post-World War II era countless universities adopted the Faurot formation — and more than 60 years later, it is still in vogue today at all levels of football. Several of football's most notable formations — the Wishbone, Wingbone, Veer or I-attack and others — utilize Faurot's option play as their basic concept.

In 19 years as Tiger football coach, the Faurot record was 101 wins, 79 losses and 10 ties. His 1939 team, featuring all-American Paul Christman, won Faurot's first Big Six title and the Tigers' first modern-day bowl bid (Orange).

Though he inherited an insolvent department and a downtrodden football program at MU in 1935, Faurot left the department 32 years later virtually debt-free despite continual expansion and improvements. On a national level, his football teams of the late 1930s and early '40s projected the University of Missouri into the upper strata of collegiate competition.

He also accumulated a staff of coaches and administrators who spent long tenures at the University, and were honored by induction into their respective halls of fame — baseball coach John "Hi" Simmons, track coach Tom Botts, football coaches Dan Devine and Frank Broyles, sports information director Bill Callahan, and former head trainer Fred Wappel, among others.

Faurot was a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame, the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor, the Blue-Gray Game Hall of Fame, past president of the American Football Coaches Association, and recipient of the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his distinguished service in the advancement of the best interests of football.

In 1972, the Tigers' football playing surface was officially named for him — something he said probably rated as his greatest personal honor. As a graduate student in agriculture in 1926, Faurot helped lay the sod on the field, prior to the opening of Memorial Stadium, that fall. In '95, he placed the final square of sod as MU successfully converted the stadium's floor back to natural grass.

Right up through 1994, Faurot was active as a talent procurer and coach for the annual Blue-Gray football game in Montgomery, Ala. He was secretary of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for many years, and was also the executive secretary of the Missouri Senior Golf Association. He spent a term after his retirement as assistant director in charge of special events for the MU Alumni Association.

Faurot's entire collegiate coaching experience, including nine years at Kirksville State Teachers College (now Truman State University) was spent within the state's borders. His career record was 169-92-13.

One of four brothers to win a football letter at MU, Don — the eldest — was a three-sport letterman in the early twenties. A lightweight fullback in football, he captained the basketball team, and was an infielder in baseball. He was born in Mountain Grove, Mo., on June 23, 1902. He passed away Oct. 19, 1995 in Columbia, the week of Homecoming. He was 93 years old.

If it's true that one must examine the past to appreciate the future, then there is no question that the legendary Dan Devine will always occupy a special place in the history of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Missouri.

For Devine is a part of both … football coach, and athletic director, during the 1960s when the Tigers were one of the most dominant teams in the nation; and athletic director for two separate terms during which he was involved in many decisions that will impact Mizzou's athletic future for many years to come.

Devine coached the Tiger football team during its most successful period. During the decade of the 1960s, Devine's winning percentage of .767 at Mizzou was the best of any college coach. He took the Tigers to six bowl games (winning four). In 13 seasons at Mizzou, he compiled a stellar 93-37-7 record. Throughout the '60s, Devine-coached Missouri teams ranked consistently among the nation's top-20 teams. Eight of his players were first-team All-America selections. When he left Mizzou after the 1970 season to coach the NFL's Green Bay Packers, Devine was the dean of Big Eight Conference coaches.

In the national polls, the 1960 Tiger team – Orange Bowl winners over Navy – achieved the highest niche, fifth in the final ratings, after having held the only number-one ranking in school history earlier in the season. The 1965 Tigers were ranked sixth nationally – and so was the '69 team. The 1969 Tigers were acclaimed by the Touchdown Club of Columbus (Ohio) as "the best major college football team playing the toughest schedule."

During his first term as MU's director of athletics (1967-70), Devine put into place plans for what resulted in the construction of the Hearnes Center, saw the construction of a new press box at Memorial Stadium, and hired Norm Stewart to resurrect what was then a sagging men's basketball program.

During Devine's second term as athletic director at MU (1992-94), his challenge was different – to increase fundraising for the athletic department, to improve MU athletic facilities, and to raise the spirits of the Tiger faithful.

The results will show that Devine was successful in every endeavor. Between 1992-94, he raised the funds necessary to enlarge the Tom Taylor Athletic Training Complex, a project that took less than one year to complete. He spearheaded the search committee that identified Joe Castiglione as his successor in the athletic director's chair, and hired Larry Smith to lead the MU football program – announcements that were made in the same day in December, 1993.

He took special pride in the accomplishments of the MU basketball team, often occupying a special seat on the Tiger bench during games.

In 1971, Devine became coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers, where he was the NFL "Coach of the Year" after winning a Central Division championship in 1972 – Green Bay's only title for many years in the post-Vince Lombardi era.

He moved on as head coach at Notre Dame in 1975, and took the Fighting Irish to the national championship in 1977. During six years at NDU, he had a record of 53-16.

Devine returned to Arizona State in 1981, where he had begun as a college coach in 1955, to become executive director of the Sun Angel Foundation. Later, he served as director of community education and substance abuse prevention at ASU. In 1990, he received the Distinguished Arizonian Award, ASU's centennial medal, and was placed in the Arizona State Hall of Distinction.

With a 172-57-9 record overall, Devine was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985. He was inducted into the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1973, was a charter member of the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990, and also that year was selected by Tiger fans as the coach of MU's all-century team. He was later posthumously honored at Mizzou when the Tigers' indoor practice facility was permanently named the Daniel J. Devine Pavilion, in 1998.

In 1978, Devine's service as an Irish-American "to God and Country" was recognized with the prestigious John F. Kennedy Award. He served on the National Council on Alcoholism, and in 1987, was appointed by President Ronald Reagan to the White House Conference for a Drug-Free America.

Devine was first hired at Mizzou by Athletic Director Don Faurot in 1958, to replace Frank Broyles, who spent one year as MU's football coach. That was after Devine had compiled a 27-3-1 record in three sparkling seasons at Arizona State.

A Wisconsin native, Devine played football, basketball and baseball at Duluth State (now the University of Minnesota-Duluth), captaining the football and basketball teams. He enrolled there in 1941, but a tour of Army Air Force duty in World War II as a first lieutenant bombardier extended his graduation date until 1948.

Then followed two seasons of high school coaching at East Jordan, Mich., with a couple of unbeaten teams there undoubtedly providing a springboard for his jump to Michigan State, in 1950. There, he formulated much of his coaching philosophy during five years on the staffs of Clarence "Biggie" Munn and Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. He earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling at Michigan State in 1952.

Devine was born Dec. 23, 1924 in Augusta, Wisc., and married the former Joanne Brookhart, with whom he parented seven children. Devine passed away in May of 2002 at the age of 77 in Phoenix, Ariz., after a year-long illness.

Mizzou's Trophy Games

MU-KU BASS DRUM — Issued to the winner of the Missouri-Kansas football game ... Originated in 1935 ... Trophy was originally conceived as Indian War Drum in nature by a couple of Mizzou alumni, since Osage Indians roamed the plains of Kansas and Missouri long before the state universities were founded ... Original intent was to stimulate new interest in longtime series that had dwindled during the Depression of the '30s and MU's all-time low in football victories ... Supposedly authentic Indian drum was purchased in a Kansas City pawn shop, and new drum was acquired prior to 1986 game ... Autographed originally on both drum heads by KU and MU alumni ... Tradition was temporarily forgotten for a few years but resumed on an annual basis in 1947 ... The first game ended in a scoreless tie.

MISSOURI-NEBRASKA BELL — Issued to the winner of the Missouri-Nebraska football game ... Originated in 1927 ... Laid aside in World War II years, and later resurrected in 1947 ... Bell was originally stolen from a church in Seward, Neb., by two Nebraska fraternities (Phi Delta Theta and Delta Tau Delta) who shared the same house ... When each fraternity moved to separate living quarters, they battled for possession of the bell each year in a specified athletic or academic contest ... When in 1927, Missouri proposed a suitable trophy be established for the MU-Nebraska football rivalry, the bell was suggested and adopted — engraved on one side with an "M" and on the other with an "N" ... At Mizzou, the bell is cared for by the QEBH Society, while the Nebraska caretaker is the Innocents Society of Nebraska ... Missouri won the first game, 7-6.

TIGER-SOONER PEACE PIPE — Ceremony of smoking the old pipe was inaugurated in 1929 by Chester M. Brewer, Mizzou's director of athletics, and by members of Mystical Seven, a University of Missouri honorary group ... The peace pipe was donated by Mr. R. L. Hill, an "M" man and former president of the Missouri student body ... Ceremony takes place during halves, with Mystical Seven representing Missouri, and a similar organization representing Oklahoma ... Missouri won the first game, 13-0.

TELEPHONE TROPHY — Issued to the winner of the Missouri-Iowa State football game ... Originated in 1959 ... The strangest of circumstances led to this trophy ... Prior to the 1959 game in Ames, a Missouri assistant coach put on his headset in the press box and got a big surprise — he could hear the Iowa State coaches chatting, since the wires were crossed and each side could hear the other ... Northwestern Bell of Ames donated the trophy, made of Alexander Graham Bell's chief invention ... Missouri won the first game, 14-0.

The Tiger Nickname

The nickname "Tigers," given to Mizzou's athletic teams, traces its origin to the Civil War period. At that time, plundering guerilla bands habitually raided small towns, and Columbia people constantly feared an attack. Such organizations as temporary "home guards" and vigilance companies banded together to fight off any possible forays.

The town's preparedness discouraged any guerilla activity and the protecting organization began to disband in 1854. However, it was rumored that a guerilla band, led by the notorious Bill Anderson, intended to sack the town. Quickly organized was an armed guard of Columbia citizens, who built a blockhouse and fortified the old courthouse in the center of town. This company was called "The Missouri Tigers."

The marauders never came. The reputation of the intrepid "Tigers" presumably traveled abroad, and Anderson's gang detoured around Columbia.

Soon after Missouri's first football team was organized in 1890, the athletic committee adopted the nickname "Tiger" in official recognition of those Civil War defenders.

Their spirit is now embodied in the MU mascot — "Truman the Tiger." Named for the Missouri-bred President of the United States — Harry S. Truman — the mascot performs at all MU football and basketball games, and many other athletic events. Truman also makes numerous civic appearances, at schools, hospitals, county fairs, etc.

Truman has been acclaimed "Best Mascot in the Nation" in national competition twice in recent years.

MU'S 1st HOMECOMING GAME

Legend says that the Homecoming tradition got its start at the University of Missouri in 1911, thanks to the vision and efforts of Chester L. Brewer, MU's Director of Athletics. Although Illinois staged a similar celebration in 1910, Missouri certainly was one of the first to hold a homecoming football game.

That year, the Missouri-Kansas game was to be played on a college campus for the first time. Previously, the game had been played in either Kansas City or St. Joseph, and Missouri trailed in the series by a 12-5-3 count.

Brewer wanted to add some spice to the season-ending game in Columbia, so he issued a plea to Mizzou alumni and especially to former Tiger football players to "Come Home" for the game. They did, with a record crowd of 9,000 overflowing Rollins Field.

With four minutes to play, and MU trailing by three, Tiger captain Glen Shuck booted a tying field goal from a difficult angle. Then, little Billy Blees caught a rampaging KU fullback in the open field in the final seconds to preserve the tie, and was carried off the field.

Hence, "Homecoming" was born. MU has a 56-37-5 record in Homecoming games. Not surprisingly, Kansas has been the most common Homecoming opponent 27 times — with MU leading in those games, 18-7-2, although the two clubs did not meet on Homecoming from 1960 until 2000.

ONLINE MEDIA CENTER

As part of our website, we have a Media Center that serves as a "one-stop shopping" destination for our friends in the media, including credentialing and access information, in addition to high-resolution image galleries for download.

To access the site, please visit www.mutigers.com, and click on "Media Center" on the left-hand side of the front page. This is a password-protected site for members of the media, and in order to protect the site, this information will not be given out unless requested directly by media. Please address requests to access to the site by sending an e-mail to Kevin Fletcher (fletcherk@missouri.edu).

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Members of the media can apply for credentials online via the official website of the Mizzou Tigers – www.mutigers.com. Click on the "Media Center" link on the left-hand panel on the front page to access the password-protected site.

To apply for football credentials, scroll down the Media Center front page and click on the link that says "Online Football Credentialing -- 2010 Season". You will then be taken to the site where you register for credentials.

MEDIA WILL CALL

The Media Will Call window is located on the west side of Memorial Stadium, on the north side of the press box elevator tower at Gate 4W. Persons are required to provide proper identification to pick up credentials or tickets left there.

MEDIA PARKING

Members of the working media will be issued press parking permits on a single-game basis. The press parking area is Reactor Lot (across Providence Road southwest of the stadium). A shuttle service will run approximately two hours before the game to three hours following.

MEDIA MEALS – PLEASE NOTE

Due to budget constraints, we will no longer be serving free meals in the press box prior to games. Box lunches can be purchased for cost, and will be available in the press seating area approximately 1 ½ hours prior to kickoff. The cost will be roughly $5 to $7, and it is requested that those wishing to go with the box lunch make reservations in advance, by Noon Friday of the game. A limited number of box lunches might be available for purchase on game day, but the only way to guarantee a box lunch is to reserve ahead of time.

Those not interested in the box lunch, are free to bring their own food into the press box, or access will be provided to the Memorial Stadium concourse, where game day concessions stands are easily accessible.

PRESSBOX INTERNET ACCESS

Ethernet lines are available on a limited basis in the press working area on the fifth level of the pressbox. Media will also have access to wireless Internet service in 2010. Please contact the the Media Relations Office for arrangements.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

A photography service area is maintained in the south endzone on Faurot Field, at the west end of the Tigers' dressing facility. You must pick up an armband there to gain admittance to the sidelines.

Tripods are not allowed at field level for safety considerations. Monopods, however, are permissible.
